BRYAN CONVINCED WILSON WILL WIN

Rides for Over an Hour With President, Returning to Shadow Lawn from Chicago

LATTER WARMLY GREETED

Mr. Wilson Participates in Several Demonstrations in His Honor at Points in Ohio and Pennsylvania.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 20.—President Wilson, returning to Long Branch today from Chicago, participated in campaign demonstrations arranged in his honor along the route by local Democrats in Ohio and Pennsylvania. Twice he alighted from his private car and thanked large crowds for coming to see him.

To a large crowd assembled here tonight in the square in front of the railroad station, the President said:

"I have no speech to make, but I would indeed be ungenerous if I did not express my gratification that you should come out to see me this way. It is a great encouragement to a public man who is trying to do his duty to receive such a welcome."

The President hurried back to his private car, but just as the train got under way the coach ahead of his car jumped the track, bringing the train to a stop with a bump and causing a delay of 15 minutes.

At Greensburg, the President left his car in a driving rain and walked outside the station to a flag draped automobile in which he stood and thanked the crowd.

W. J. Bryan, who resigned as Secretary of State because of differences with the President over foreign affairs, met the President at Pittsburg and rode with him for more than an hour.

Mr. Bryan, after talking with the President, said he had become convinced that Mr. Wilson would be re-elected. He has been campaigning for the President in the West and declared he expected the Democrats to gain several Senators in the mountain states.

"I want to put it as strongly as possible that Mr. Wilson will win," said Mr. Bryan. "The people approve his Mexican policy and something the administration has done appeals to every class of voters." He added the women of the West are for the President.

Tomorrow afternoon Mr. Wilson will address a gathering of farmers at Shadow Lawn.

MAN WHO TRIED TO JUMP ON PRESIDENT'S CAR STILL HELD

Pittsburg, Oct. 20.—Richard Cullen, aged 22, a machinist, who was taken into custody after attempting to jump on the running board of an automobile in which President Wilson was riding here today, was examined by physicians this afternoon and ordered sent to the city home at Mayview for further observation regarding his sanity. Cullen denied that he intended harming the President, saying he was not satisfied with the administration's foreign policies and just wanted to talk to him. A bottle of liquid in a bag carried by Cullen was found to contain medicine, according to the police. A knife with a blade five inches long and several wood chisels were also in the bag. Cullen hac been attending night school at a local technical institute, working during the day for a steel company.

ASSAILS MEN WHO HAMPER THE PRESIDENT IN TIME OF DANGER

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 20.—Vice-President Marshall, speaking here tonight, pleaded for less criticism of the President for the wa yhe has handled the problems growing out of the European war and defended the legislation that averted a great railway strike, "bringing industrial peace in a week."

Mr. Marshall was bitter in his arraignment of those who pick flaws in the President's efforts to maintain neutrality.

"It is the first right of an American to be a partisan," he said, "but it is his duty first to be a patriot. The man who hampers the President in time of danger is an enemy."

Discussing the 8-hour law, Mr. Marshall said that there was now less criticism of the law than of the manner in which it was enacted. He explained that such legislation was necessary and that there was no time for arbitration. Answering the charge that the laboring men had forced the President and Congress into such position that they were compelled to provide the 8-hour law, he cited cases in certain Republican administrations, when, he alleged, capitalistic groups had forced legislation and said if that was the case then "may not honest laboring men choke a little justice out of a Democratic administration?"

C., Oct. 20.—Twenty-eight college presidents and prominent educators are expected to attend the conference for the educational betterment of the negro, which will open in Durham November 21 and ocntinue three days. The programme was made public tonight. The announced purpose of the conference is "to render service in every possible way to the cause of education of the negro in the United States."

Washington, Oct. 20.—The Society of Railway Financial Affairs adjourned its meeting heret oday, after hearing an address by Frank A. Vanderlip, president of the National City Bank, New York. E. H. Alden, Philadelphia, secretary of the Norfolk and Western, was elected president of the society.

HOUSE OF BISHOPS SELECTS DETROIT

Episcopalians to Meet [illegible] 1919 if House of Deputies Concurs in Selection

PENSIONS PLAN APPROVED

Each Parish to be Taxed 7.4 Per Cent of the Annual Salary Paid Its Pastor in Support of the Fund.

St. Louis, Oct. 20.—Detroit will be the meeting place of the 1919 triennial convention of the Episcopal church if the House of Deputies of the convention in session here, concurs with the House of Bishops in its selection, made late today.

The House of Bishops also submitted to the lower house for approval the re-election of Bishop Arthur Selden Lloyd, of New York, as president of the Board of Missions, and of George Gordon King, of Newport, R. I., as treasurer. This board is generally considered the most important in the church.

The convention today approved a plan of pensions for the clergy, the House of Deputies concurring with the House of Bishops in system, whereby each parish in the church is taxed for the support of the pension fund, 7.4 per cent of the annual salary paid its pastor. The plan, as adopted, provides for clergymen who have reached the age of 68, a minimum pension of $600, one-half the average annual salary of the clergy, and for a maximum of $2,000 yearly. There are 5,814 clergymen in the church who will profit by the plan, providing the initial $5,000,000 is raised. Two-thirds of this amount has been raised, it was recently announced.

A resolution adopted by the House of Deputies provides for a commission to urge the National administration "to restore the Episcopal church to representation among the army and navy chaplains in proportion to the number of Episcopalians in the country and to request the administration to get definite information as to the religious affiliation of our soldiers and sailors."

A report on business methods in the church, approved in the House of Deputies and sent to the House of Bishops, urged uniform financial and account methods throughout the various parishes in handling church moneys.

The House of Deputies also endorsed the work of the Actors' Church Alliance.

Speaking before a joint meeting of the two houses of the general convention today, the Rt. Rev. W. A. Guerry, bishop of South Carolina, said the church has definitely and finally committed itself to the work of social reform.

"We know that the church is doing more than ever before for the working class," he said. "We should endeavor to bring about legislation to give every man the just reward of his labors. In such a way are we going to win back to the church the estranged and separated masses.

"To the great body of laboring people in this country, the church represents privilege and is the enemy of progress.

The greatest danger to American life is irreverence, the Rt. Rev. T. F. Gailor, bishop of Tennessee, declared, speaking in the interests of religious education.

"You cannot have patriotism without reverence," he said. "Any nation that is drifting into disbelief is drifting into inefficiency, political imbecility and moral bankruptcy."

RUSSIA AND GERMANY TO SIGN PEACE PACT?

Muensterberg "Informed" It Will Take Place Before Spring

Says He Learns From "Reliable Sources" That Russia Is "Out of Joint, Is Half Bankrupt, Is Starving."

Cambridge, Mass., October 20.—Hugo Muensterberg, professor of psychology at Harvard University, in an address tonight before the International Polity Club of the University, asserted that he had been reliably informed that Russia and Germany would sign terms of a separate peace before spring, and that after this peace there would be an alliance between Germany, Russia and Japan.

"I know from reliable sources," he said, "that Russia is out of joint, is half bankrupt, is starving and will be ready for a separate peace before spring. The result is to be an alliance between Germany, Austria, Russia and Japan. Japan and Russia are pushing toward this combination and an overwhelming majority of the German people would welcome it today.

"It is the old Bismarckian tradition that Germany ought to be the friend of Russia and that such an alliance would be her surest protection.

"If we really want to bring peace for a generation there is no hope but to bring Germany and England to an understanding before Germany and Russia have made peace and formed an alliance. Neither the English nor the German people want this peace today, but they ought to want it, for once the new alliance is formed, it will seek

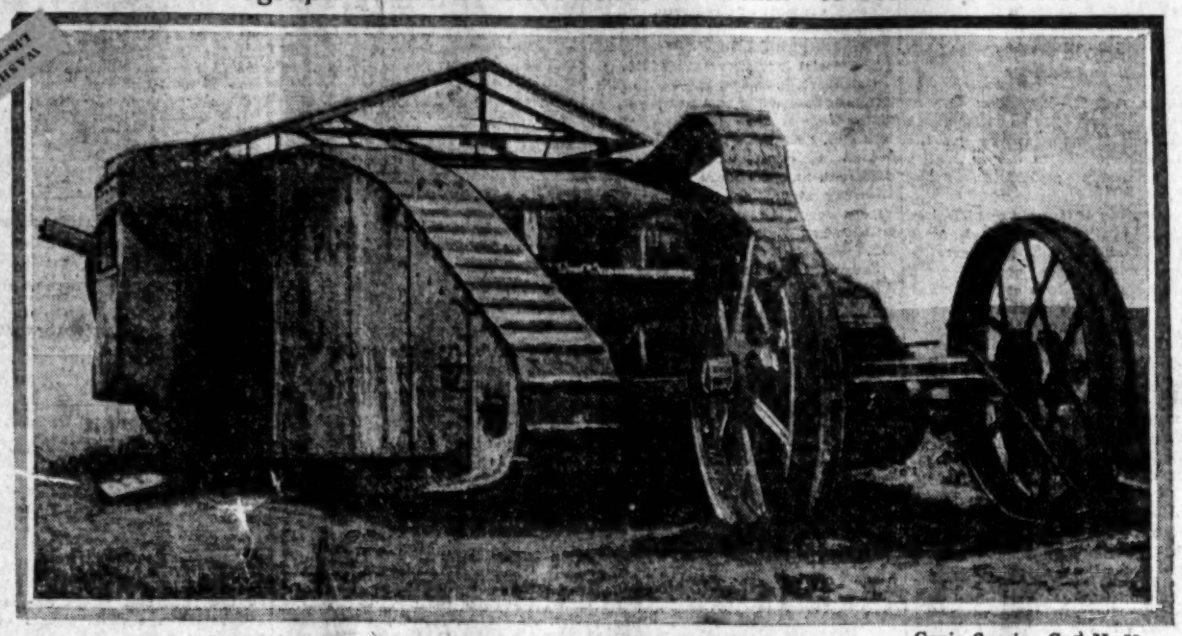
First Photograph of the British Armored "Tank" to Reach America



LIBRARY OF CONGRESS WASHINGTON, D.

Copic Service Co. N. Y.

This latest invention of modern warfare, which crosses trenches and streams, climbs hills and mows down hundreds of soldiers as it is guided on its way, is an adaptation of the farm tractor in use in this country for several years. Note the battery of two rapid fire guns at the left; a similar battery is located on the other side. Much of the recent success of the Allies on the western front is attributed to this queer looking monitor, called by some a "land battleship." The device was first used in the battle on the Somme.

GERMANS DESTROY 3 BRITISH 'TANKS'

"Much Trumpeted Armored" Automobiles "Powerless" Before Teuton Artillery Fire

BERLIN WIRELESS REPORT

Larger Part of Trenches Taken by British in Somme Region on October 18 Have Been Re-Captured, Says Statement.

Berlin, via Sayville, Oct. 20.—The German statement regarding the Somme front says:

"Army group of Crown Prince Rupprecht: During the rainy weather the mutual artillery duel on both sides of the Somme continued lively.

"The largest part of the trenches west of the road between Eaucourt Abbey and LeBarque, taken by the English on October 18, was captured by an attack. In the evening hours advances of English detachments north of Courcelette and east of LeSars failed.

"As only now reported, the English during the last great attack also used some of their much trumpeted armored automobiles, or so-called tanks. Three of them are lying before our lines, having been destroyed by our artillery fire."

EMPEROR WILLIAM VISITING TROOPS ON WESTERN FRONT

Berlin, via London, Oct. 20.—"Emperor William," says an official statement issued today, "has for some days been visiting troops on the western front. On the 17th he visited at Mercy-LeBas, with the crown prince, portions of the attacking force before Verdun and received the reports of Generals Von Lochow and Baron Von Luettwitz.

"After a visit to the recruiting depot for landstrum troops and the rest home for soldiers founded by the district of Wolmirstedt, his majesty, accompanied by the crown prince, visited further the zone of General Von Mudra and also on the 18th the army of General Von Einem. He conferred upon Generals Von Einem, Von Mudra and Von Wehl the Oak Leaves of the order Poul Le Merite and on the troops a number of iron crosses of the first class."

FROST IN TWO CAROLINAS AND GEORGIA IS FORECASTED

General Snows and Rains Cover Practically Entire Country.

Washington, Oct. 20.—Frost for North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia and low temperatures over the interior, followed by a rise Sunday in Tennessee and the east Gulf states, was forecasted by the Weather Bureau tonight.

A depression that was over the southwest upper lake region Thursday night developed today into a severe disturbance followed by general snows and rains that covered practically the entire country, from the Mississippi valley eastward, except Georgia and South Carolina. High temperatures prevailed today in the Atlantic states but elsewhere except in the extreme southwest there is unseasonably cold weather. Early today the line of freezing extended into central Texas.

FOUR INSTANTLY KILLED IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Woman and Three Girls Meet Death When Train Hits Machine.

Altoona, Pa., Oct. 20.—A woman and three girls were instantly killed here tonight and the woman's son probably fatally injured when a Pennsylvania railroad train struck an automobile in which they were riding. The accident occurred at a grade crossing.

CENTRAL POWERS' ARMIES ON THREE FRONTS START SUCCESSFUL OFFENSIVES

They Are Driving the Entente Forces in France, Galicia, and in the Dobrudja Region of Rumania—Fourteen Russian Officers and 2,050 Men Captured Southeast of Lemberg—Positions Re-Captured From the British.

In France, in Galicia, and in the Dobrudja region of Rumania, the armies of the Central Powers have successfully taken the offensive against their opponents. They are also holding the Entente Allies in check in northern Macedonia and are continuing the fighting on the Transylvania-Rumania frontier.

Crown Prince Rupprecht, of Bavaria, assuming the initiative on the Somme front in France, has, according to the Berlin war office, re-captured from the British the greater part of the positions won from the Germans October 18, between Eaucourt L'Ammaye and LeBarque, between the Pozieres-Bapaume road and Gueudecourt and toward Beaucourt. The Germans also have successfully withstood British attacks near Courcellette and LeSars and on the Pozieres-Bajaume road. Paris reports only artillery activity on the Somme front, but London chronicles the repulse with heavy casualties, of a German attack in the Thiepval region.

On the eastern front the Teutonic forces have stormed Russian positions on the left bank of Narayuvka river southeast of Lemberg, and held the conquered ground against counter attacks. Fourteen officers and 2,050 men and 11 machine guns were taken here by Prince Leopold's troops.

In Volhynia the fighting continues with varying results, both the Austro-Germans and the Russians claiming repulses of attacks on various sectors. To the north of Kiselin a stubborn battle is being waged with no decision having yet been reached.

Field Marshal Von Mackensen again has resumed his drive toward the Constanza-Bucharest railroad in Dubrudja. While Berlin reports the fighting there as "livelier" Bucharest admits that the Rumanian left wing along the Black Sea coast has been thrown back. Petrograd reports that the Teutonic attacks were repelled with heavy losses and that the battle continues.

The Rumanians armies are fighting hard to drive the troops of the Central Powers back through the frontier passes into Transylvania. Bucharest reports the beginning of an offensive in the Oituz valley, northeast of Kronstadt, and the taking of Mount Surul, east of the Rothenthurm pass, south of Harmannstadt. Attacks in the Bran Defile and the Trotus, Usel and Alt valleys, were repulsed by the Rumanians.

While Paris says the Serbians have captured the town of Velyessio, north of Brod, in the region marked by the bend in the Cerna river in southern Serbia, Berlin declares the offensive there has come to a halt before the stand of the forces of the Central Powers.

Violent fighting continues on Conte Pasubio, in the Trentino region, with Rome and Vienna both claiming sight successes.

FRENCH CLAIM AS TO AIR RAID DENIED BY BERLIN

Berlin, via Sayville, Oct. 20.—An investigation by German authorities discredits the French official claim that 40 aeroplanes on October 13 dropped 4,340 kilograms of projectiles on the Mauser works at Oberndorf and brought down six German aeroplanes which attempted to defend the works, says an Overseas News Agency statement today.

"It has been proved," says the statement, "that of the 40 Anglo-French aeroplanes, 15 reached Oberndorf and dropped about 60 bombs there. The other hostile aeroplanes were dispersed by attacks of our airmen. The bombs were dropped haphazard on fields and numerous small villages. No military damage was done at Oberndorf or elsewhere and the other damage was insignificant. The factory continued to run until hampered by the raid.

"Three persons were killed and several persons who remained in the open air were wounded by fragments of bombs. Of the 40 aeroplanes nine were shot down by our airmen and anti-aircraft gunsfi The names of the occupants and the makes of the machines are accurately given.

"Those killed were pilots and gunners, Guerineau, Baron, Georges, Jouan and Marchand. Those taken prisoner were named Rockey, Sterdic, Bouet, Deloroix, Buckerborth, Mattay, Newman and Viely.

"The names of four occupants who were killed are not known. None of the German aeroplanes that took part in the aerial engagements wast lost and none of their inmates were killed or wounded."

ITALY TAKES ANOTHER STEP TO FORCE NATIONAL ECONOMY

Rome, Oct. 20, 11 a. m., (via Paris).—A government decree issued today orders all street lights and also lights in stores, hotels and cafes dimmed at 10:30 o'clock in the evening. This is a continuation of the energetic movement to force national economy, the first measure having been the raising of the price of sugar to 25 cents a pound and prohibiting the sale for the manufacture of candies or other sweets.

DEMANDS AUTHORITY OVER THE POLICE OF GREECE

Athens, Oct. 20, (via London, Oct. 21.)—The demands of Admiral Du Fournet, commander of the Entente allied fleet in the Mediterranean, upon Greece include the right to transfer, dismiss or appoint any police officer or detective in Greece. Greek police officials are not to appoint, dismiss or transfer any policemen without the admiral's consent. The marines now in Athens and Piraeus are to remain there but no more will be landed for present.

The Greeks are accepting the situation as inevitable. Athens and Piraeus are calm.

NEW EXPORT RECORD MADE DURING MONTH OF SEPTEMBER

Over Half Billion Dollars Worth of Goods Sent Abroad.

Washington, Oct. 20.—American exports made a new record during September when $512,847,957 worth of goods were sent abroad. The exports were greater than ever before in one month, and exceeded the previous record, made in August last, by about $3,000,000.

Imports fell off sharply, totalling $164,128,604 for September or less by $35,000,000 than those of August. They were larger by $18,000,000, however, than the average for the corresponding month during the past five years.

The favorable trade balance of September was $348,719,343, which is $200,000,000 larger than for September a year ago and $322,000,000 larger than two years ago.

TWO TRANSPORTS SUNK BY U-BOATS

British Ships, Cross Hill and Sedek, Sent Down in the Mediterranean Last Week

ANNOUNCEMENT BY BERLIN

Submarine Spells Factories and Railroad Near Catanzaro, Italy—Sinking of the Franconia Also Announced.

Berlin, Oct. 20, (via Sayville).—The armed British transports Cross Hill and Sedek, were sunk in the Mediterranean by German submarines last week, says an official statement issued by the German admiralty. On October 16th a German submarine, it is added, shelled factories and the railroad near Catanzaro, in Calabria, Italy. The report, dated yesterday, says:

"German submarines sank in the Mediterranean the following ships:

"October 4, the empty British transport steamer Franconia, 18,150 tons; October 11, the armed British transport steamer Cross Hill, 5,000 tons, with horses and Serbian grooms; October 12, the armed British transport steamer Sedek, 4,600 tons which was deeply laden. The Cross Hill and Sedek were bound for Saloniki.

"On October 16 a German submarine successfully shelled factories and railroad works near Catanzaro, in Calabria."

The sinking of the transport Franconia, a former Cunard liner, was reported in a British admiralty statement October 5.

SEMINOLE AND TAMPA ARE TOWING ARAPAHOE TO NORFOLK

Disabled Clyde Liner Reports That She is Now in no Danger.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 20.—Wireless reports today from the Clyde liner Arapahoe are to the effect that the ship is still in tow of the coast guard cutters Seminole and Tampa. The Tampa is reported to have reached the scene of the disaster early this morning. Little headway is being made owing to heavy seas and high winds, although the Arapahoe is still reported in no danger. The coast guard cutters are making for Norfolk with the disabled steamer, owing to storm warnings flashed to sea today by the weather bureau stations.

At midnight reports from the Seminole were to the effect that slow progress, owing to the high seas running, is being made toward Hampton Roads with the Arapahoe. The Seminole is towing the disabled ship while the Tampa is acting as rudder. They also report that the steamer Coamo is standing by to remove the passengers from the liner should it become necessary. The Coamo early this morning got a tow line to the Arapahoe only to have her towing bitt torn out and could render no further assistance to the Seminole.

MEXICANS FIRE ON AMERICAN TROOPS

Clash Occurred Near San Jose in the Big Bend Country on Thursday Afternoon

NO AMERICAN CASUALTIES

Exchange of Shots Across the Rio Grande Lasted for Forty-Five Minutes—Encounter is Being Investigated.

San Antonia, Texas, Oct. 20.—American troops and Mexicans clashed near San Jose in the Big Bend country yesterday afternoon, acording to a report received by General Funston early tonight from Colonel Joseph Gaston, commander of the district. The fight lasted for 45 minutes. No losses were shuffered by the Americans and information is lacking regarding losses among the Mexicans.

Colonel Gaston's report said that a band of about 30 Mexicans opened fire on a detachment composed of 23 men of the Sixth cavalry and Texas National Guard cavalry squadron, engaged in patrol duty between Presidio and Ruidosa. Lieutenant Cudington, of the Texas squadron, commanding the troops, ordered his men to return the fire.

A vigorous exchange of shots continued for a period of 45 minutes, the Americans and Mexicans being in skirmish formation from covered positions on either side of the Rio Grande.

Information from Colonel Gaston did not indicate that the United States troops crossed in pursuit of the Mexicans. After the fight, Lieutenant Cudington returned to Ruidosa with his command.

Whether the Mexicans were de facto government troops or members of a bandit band was not known by General Funston tonight.

Colonel Gaston reported that Major Anderson, of the Sixth cavalry, has gone to San Jose to investigate the incident as has Colonel Riojos, commander of the Carranza garrison at Ojinaga.

REPORTS INDICATE THAT THE MEXICANS WERE DRUNK

Washington, Oct. 20.—General Funston, reporting tonight on the exchange of shots across the border at San Jose said that late reports reaching him indicated the American troops were fired upon "by drunken Mexicans."

The dispatch made no mention of firing by the American troopers and said there were no casualties on either side. Officials here were inclined to attach little significance to the incident, believing an irresponsible band had blundered upon the detachment of Americans and had withdrawn after firing a few desultory shots. There was nothing in General Funston's dispatch, it was said, to indicate a prolonged engagement.

A paraphrase of the dispatch made public by the War Department, follows:

"Commanding officer of Big Bend district reports that on the evening of October 19 twenty-three men of the Sixth cavalry and a Texas squadron of cavalry at San Jose, ten miles below Ruidosa, were fired upon from the Mexican side by a party of about thirty Mexicans. Some of these Mexicans crossed to our side but immediately withdrew to the Mexican side. There

WHEAT CONTINUES TO BREAK PAST RECORDS

Quotation for December Delivery Goes to $1.71 3-4.

Another Advance in Price of Flour at Minneapolis—Nearly 200 Bakers Have Failed Because of the High Prices.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Wheat continued to break records on the board of trade today, and for the second time this week seemed to threaten the high water mark set in 1898, when Joseph Leiter cornered the market. Wheat for delivery next December sold at $1.71 3-4 and although the closing price was 2 cents under this figure, the tensity of the situation was not relieved.

Another advance in the price of flour was reported at Minneapolis and according to a dispatch from Columbus, Ohio, the National Master Bakers' Association announced that 185 bakers failed during the three summer months because of the high price of flour.

The Master Bakers' Association of Chicago will meet Monday to start a campaign through congressmen to obtain an embargo on the export of wheat and flour until the domestic situation is relieved. Six members of the association tried to obtain an audience with President Wilson on the subject yesterday but the President could not find time to see them.

Mr. Dahlheimer said that at the present rate Chicago, which was recently called upon to pay six cents for thetraditional light weight 5-cent loaf, would have to support a further raise.

IN THE REALM OF SPORTS

V. P. I. Gives Yale Eleven Hard Game

POWERFUL NEW HAVEN TEAM IS HELD TO THREE TOUCHDOWNS AND A GOAL, WINNING BY SCORE OF 19 TO 0.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 20.—The fast eleven from Virginia Polytechnic Institute today presented to Yale an unexpectedly strong defense and held the powerful Blue eleven to three touchdowns and a goal. Yale won by a score of 19 to 0, but the Virginians played a plucky game and once took the ball on downs on their own four yard line.

A fog swept in over the rim of the bowl, a fine drizzle fell during most of the game, and the sultry weather handicapped the players. The slippery field slowed up the Eli attack and the backs frequently fumbled and fell. The Southerners never seriously threatened to score.

Yale started off by making two touchdowns in the first period, mostly as a result of short line plunges. After this they faltered and the remainder of the game was ragged. The Virginia line charged quickly and on many occasions tackled the Yale runner before the offense had actually started.

In the third period Legore threw a forward pass to Gates, who scored a touchdown with not an opposing player near. The pass was a 15-yard heave over the goal line. Virginia could not penetrate the Yale line and attempts at forward passes generally were unsuccessful. Neville intercepted one pass and ran 55 yards.

BETTING EVEN MONEY ON THE VIRGINIA-GEORGIA GAME

Charlotte, Va., Oct. 20.—Virginia University's football squad, after a final workout this afternoon, were taken in automobiles tonight to an unannounced destination in the country to escape the excitement here incident to the game tomorrow with the University of Georgia. The Georgia team is expected to arrive early tomorrow.

Betting here tonight was at even money. The Georgia line has an average weight of 185 to the Virginians' 176, but the Red and Black will not have the services of Center "Bull" Garmany, injured in last week's game with Florida. Pew probably will take his place.

Alan Thurman, star punter, who recently rejoined the Virginia team, after serving in the American ambulance corps in France, participated in the scrimmage today but it was said that he probably would not play against Georgia until his services were desperately needed.

LEADING EASTERN TEAMS EXPECTED TO WIN EASILY

New York, Oct. 20.—Comparatively easy victories are expected for leading Eastern college football teams tomorrow, when Harvard plays the Massachusetts Aggies, Princeton meets La-Fayette, Pennsylvania tackles Penn State, Cornell has Bucknell as opponent, Army faces Trinity and Navy meets West Virginia Wesleyan. Yale will be idle, having played Virginia Polytechnic Institute this afternoon.

Pennsylvania appears to have the strongest opponent of the day because Penn State has rolled up double figure scores against every eleven met this season.

The Massachusetts Aggies made the Crimson work for a five to nothing victory in 1915; lost to Dartmouth 62 to 0 last week and Harvard should have little difficulty in holding the same team safe.

Two games which promise close play are the Syracuse-Pittsburg and Dartmouth-Georgetown contests. All four elevens have had excellent records in short season to date.

CAROLINA FOOTBALL SQUAD OFF LAST NIGHT FOR ATLANTA

Chapel Hill, N. C., Oct. 20.—The Carolina football squad left at 7 o'clock tonight for Atlanta, where tomorrow they will try their strength with the strong team of the Georgia Institute of Technology. They are certain that Georgia Tech will put up a stiff fight, and that it will require the briskest kind of playing to win. Efforts have been made in the practice this week to meet the special style of play that Tech makes use of. The freshman team has used some of these plays in its scrimmages with the 'varsity. The Carolina line is expected to show the strength that it did in the Princeton and Harvard games, but in spite of this strength the team realize that their opponent is crafty and all points must be guarded.

The coaches are not trying to bring the Carolina squad to final condition too rapidly. Many of the plays being used have not been rendered very effective as yet, even though the team is rounding into form gradually.

CLEMSON LOSES TO AUBURN AFTER MAKING HARD FIGHT

Auburn, Ala., Oct. 20.—Clemson put up a gritty fight against Auburn here today and held the Plainsmen to a score of 28 to 0, though penalties and fumbles cost Auburn at least two more touchdowns. The Auburn backfield showed up well, but the line appeared to be behind in its development. Prendergast and Steed worked well on end runs, aided by the interference of Captain Hairstone. Clemson presented a varied attack and showed excellent interference on end runs. In the third period Banks returned a kick off for 60 yards. Clemson failed to make first down during the game.

DONALDSON MILITARY SCHOOL DEFEATS RAEFORD 20 TO 0

Fayetteville, N. C., Oct. 20.—Scoring three touchdowns and two goals, Donaldson Military School defeated Raeford here today 20 to 0. Donaldson showed training and team work superior to that of its opponents, particularly in the use of the forward pass. The cadets scored in each period except the fourth, Jones, McNeill and Fench carrying the ball over. These men together with Niemyer and Bunting played good football for Donaldson, while Quarter Wright starred for Raeford. J. M. Huske, of Horner's, umpired the game.

Strong Southern Elevens to Play

CAROLINA VS. GEORGIA TECH AND DAVIDSON VS. CITADEL AMONG THE STRUGGLES TO BE STAGED TODAY

Atlanta, Oct. 20.—A number of hard fought battles will be staged on Southern gridirons tomorrow and the results are expected to narrow the list of championship possibilities materially.

The meeting of Georgia and Virginia at Charlottesville is awaited with keen interest, probably the most important football news of the week having been the return of Barker and Thurman to the Virginia team, and the announcement that last year's head coach, Harry Varner, and a number of former Virginia stars had returned to help Head Coach Evans whip the squad into shape. "Bob" WcWhorter, former Georgia star, attending the Virginia law school, also is assisting Evans. This announcement, together with the work of several new men in the Richmond struggle last week, has boosted Virginia stock considerably. Georgia, on the other hand, has been developing steadily.

None of the Southern teams are severely crippled because of injured players, although Alabama has lost Left Guard Dexter Hovater, whose leg was broken in the Mississippi College contest last tweek, and Georgia has several men more or less battered.

In Southern Inter-collegiate Athletic Associations territory, almost every team concedes a chance at the championship title is booked for a hard game. Georgia Tech takes on North Carolina here; Vanderbilt and Mississippi meet at Nashville; Sewanee goes to Lexington, Ky., to play Kentucky State; Tennessee meets South Carolina at Knoxville; Alabama tackles Florida at Gainesville, Fla., and Louisiana State and Mississippi College will clash at Baton Rouge.

The Georgia-North Carolina game is expected to be a hard one. The Tar Heels, according to reports, have the strongest team in several years and the work of the line men and of Full Back Folger has won much praise. Tech won from North Carolina last year 23 to 3.

Tennessee, reports say, will meet a greatly improved team in South Carolina, the Carolinians, since their defeat at the hands of Newberry, having been working hard and are reported to be rounding into shape rapidly.

Critics concede Vanderbilt an excellent chance to win over Mississippi, though the latter team is much stronger this year than last, when it lost to Vanderbilt 91 to 0. Sewanee's meeting with Kentucky is expected to be a criterion to the Vanderbilt-Sewanee Thanksgiving day battle, as Vanderbilt recently rolled up a heavy score against the Colonels. Sewanee and Kentucky last year played a 7 to 7 tie. Other games scheduled tomorrow are: Washington and Lee vs. Roanoke, at Lexington, Va.; Louisville vs. Chattanooga, at Louisville, Ky.; Tulane vs. Jefferson, at New Orleans; Mississippi A. & M. vs. Transylvania, at Starkville, Miss.; Mercer vs. Howard, at Birmingham; Wofford vs. Erskine, at Spartanburg; Citadel vs. Davidson, at Davidson; Richmond vs. Hampton-Sydney, at Richmond; William & Mary vs. Randolph-Macon, at Williamsburg; Virginia Military Institute vs. Maryland A. & M., at College Park, Md.

FOOTBALL RESULTS.

At New Haven, Conn.: V. P. I. 0; Yale 19.

At Auburn, Ala.: Auburn 28; Clemson 0.

At Spartanburg, S. C.: Wofford 7; Erskine 12.

At Newberry, S. C.: Newberry 13; Chick Springs Academy 7.

IS WON BY GEORGE E. COOK

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 20.—The individual pistol match, the concluding event on the National Rifle Association's programme, was won here today by George E. Cook, of Washington, D. C., who scored 385 out of a possible 420 points. There were 305 competitors.

George W. Chesley, of New Haven, Conn., won the Grand Aggregate match as he chalked up 809 out of a possible 855 points in the Members, Rapid Fire, Marine Corps, Leech Cup, Wimbledon and President's matches.

The National matches, under the auspices of the National board for the promotion of rifle practice, will begin on Monday. Fifty-six teams are here, said to be the largest number ever gathered for a National match.

MABEL TRASK AGAIN WINS OUT OVER HER HARNESS RIVAL

Atlanta, Oct. 20.—Mabel Trask, the chestnut mare, owned by Walter R. Cox and driven by her owner, again defeated her harness rival, St. Frisco, today in straight heats on the Lakewood track, winning the Georgia Railway and Power Company cup and the big end of a $2,500 purse. Her best time was 2:07 1-4, made in the third heat.

The two favorites trotted consistently, St. Frisco, with his owner, Geers, driving, finished each heat in second place, and in neither more than a neck behind. The race was for the 2:08 class trotting with a field of five.

BALTIMORE STEAMSHIP CASE AGAIN NEXT WEEK

The Railroads' Side to be Heard in Washington, D. C.

Judge Long, Ill at Goldsboro, is Convalescing—Judge Stacy to Preside at Epstein Trial—Boosting Chamber of Commerce.

(Special Star Correspondence).

Goldsboro, N. C., Oct. 20.—Judge B. F. Long, of Statesville, who has been presiding over a term of civil court in this city, and who was taken sick the second day of the term, is now convalescent, and will leave for his home Saturday night. Judge Long came here through an exchange of courts with Judge W. P. Stacy, of Wilmington.

Judge Stacy will preside over the criminal term of court next month, when the noted Epstein case, which resulted in a mistrial the last term, will be resumed. Judge Stacy made many warm friends during his last visit to this city and his charge to the jury in the Epstein case was considered by "old timers" of the local bar as being one of the best ever delivered by a judge in Goldsboro.

M. R. Beaman, secretary of the Goldsboro chamber of commerce, has gone to Washington, D. C., where next week he will represent the shippers in Eastern North Carolina in the celebrated case of the Baltimore & Carolina Steamship Company against several railways operating in Eastern Carolina, begun here early in the summer, which will re-open next week. The steamship company contends that the railways have discriminated against them in regard to rates and otherwise conspired against them. The railroads will endeavor to convince Examiner Watkins of the Interstate Commerce Commission, that these charges are without foundation, the steamship company's side of the case having been heard in this city.

About the happiest people in Wayne county these days are the farmers, who are highly elated over the fine prices cotton is bringing, and if one desires to get his finger in the "frying pan" just mention the fact that the Wayne farmers are not solid for President Wilson for re-election. During the past few days the local market has been crowded with the fleecy staple and should the prices drop during the next few days the farmers will be far ahead of the game as they have already brought to the market the largest portion of their crop, which it is said has been somewhat short in this section of the State.

Boosting Chamber of Commerce.

Realizing the great benefit the chamber of commerce has been toward fostering the best interests of the city in every way that an organization of this kind is capable of doing, the present members of the chamber have secured the services of an experienced organizer, Mr. E. C. McCarthy, who today is making a canvass of the city in an effort to secure new members. In securing the services of Mr. McCarthy, the president of the chamber is confident of adding several hundred new members and when the city has been thoroughly convassed the chamber will celebrate the initiation of the new members with a big barbecue and smoker, when the advantages will be thoroughly discussed to the members among the business men showing them the many profits they will derive by sticking to the organization, which at all times is busy fostering the best interests of the city as a whole. While in this section Mr. McCarthy will endeavor to also organize the smaller towns near Goldsboro.

M. L. Adams, a Wayne county farmer, who last night was considered dangerously ill, as a result of being injured by an automobile, is still holding his own today and is considered a shade better, but is still considered as being in a serious condition. Mr. Adams received internal injuries and at this time it is not known to what stages they will develop.

SLEEPING IN QUEER PLACES

Englishman Chose Plank 120 Feet Above Ground.

(London Answers).

A short time ago a man was discovered in his lunch hour fast asleep on a plank. His arms were hanging down, one on each side of the board, which was about a foot wide. He was snoring gloriously, and quite careless of the fact that if he turned over for greater comfort he would "tumble out of bed" 120 feet, for that plank was part of the scaffolding erected for the repair of a church spire.

A similar disregard for danger was reported lately during the erection of an electrical plant. One of the men engaged on the tall chimney, missing his mate at the lunch hour, went up the half-finished chimney to find him. He discovered him fast asleep on a narrow ledge of brick inside the shaft, a fall from which means a drop of 80 feet.

The other week a circus arrived in a certain town, not 100 miles from London, at an early hour after a long journey and a performance the previous night. As a consequence, few of the company got any sleep. That day there was the usual procession and the afternoon performance. The lion tamer had had a very rough time because of the illness of one of his beasts.

The evening performance arrived, and the man had to pretend to go to sleep with his head on the body of a couchant lion, finishing up the performance by springing up and putting his head in another lion's mouth.

But when the jumping up time came a gentle snore was heard. The man was fast asleep with his head pillowed on a lion.

BIG CATCH OF DRUM

Seventy-Five "Big Fellows" Caught From Seashore Pier.

CALOMEL WHEN BILIOUS? NO! STOP! MAKES YOU SICK AND SALIVATES

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Is Harmless To Clean Your Sluggish Liver and Bowels.

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you may lose a day's work.

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with sour bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonfulsof harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight on my guarantee.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.

POLICE "PUT CRIMP" IN LOCAL INFANT INDUSTRY

Arrest Negro, Following Reports of Sale of Water as Whiskey.

The Wilmington police yesterday "put a crimp" in, if they did not actually destroy what bade fair to become a very profitable business if not one of the city's leading "infant industries", when they took into custody one Willie Feares, colored, the chief promoter, on a vagrancy charge.

According to the complaints which reached the police, Willie was in the habit of blowing into the union station about train time with a suit case filled with whiskey bottles which contained a bountiful supply of water from the Northeast Cape Fear, absolutely safe for drinking purposes, but minus any suspicion of "corn juice."

According to complaints made to the police, the negro would slip a bottle to some fellow going off on the train on the pretext that it was whiskey, and it would turn out to be nothing more or less than city water obtained from some convenient spigot.

Officer Leon George was on the lookout yesterday morning, when he observed a negro of about 20 years of age enter the station with a dingy straw suit case. Approaching his quarry, the officer said "what have you got in that bag?" And upon receiving the reply, "Nothing that concerns you," ordered the negro to open up. The negro did so, at the same time drawing out the whiskey bottle and smashing it on the pavement. The negro then gave some resistance to arrest until he was quieted by a few "love taps" with the officer's billy. At the police station, where he was locked up a short time later, it was found that the remainder of the broken bottle had not the faintest perfume of liquor about it.

As Officer George never saw the negro sell any of his bottles it was decided that a charge of vagrancy should be entered on the blotter against him. This was done, it being set forth in detail that the negro was spending his time in idleness with no visible means of support.

Safe Home Remedy for Skin-Troubles

Eczema, ringworm, and other itching, burning skin eruptions are so easily made worse by improper treatment that one has to be very careful. There is one method, however, that you need never hesitate to use, even on a baby's tender skin—that is the resinol treatment. Resinol is the prescription of a Baltimore doctor, put up in the form of resinol ointment and resinol soap. This proved so remarkably successful, that thousands of other physicians have prescribed it constantly for over twenty years.

Generally resinol stops itching at once, and heals the eruption quickly and at little cost. Resinol ointment and resinol soap can be bought at any druggist's.

Resinol Soap is not only unusually cleansing and softening, but its regular use gives to the skin and hair that natural beauty of perfect health which cosmetics can only imitate.

THEATRICAL

That old-time favorite with so many thousands of Wilmingtonians, Lionel Barrymore, is back on the screen, and today the Royal presents his first great feature since the "Yellow Streak," which will be remembered as being presented at the Royal some six months ago. The title is "Darian's Divorce" and it is a Metro Wonderplay in five acts, in which Mr. Barrymore is co-star with Grace Valentine.

In "Dorian's Divorce," Lionel Barrymore, the gifted dramatic artist, who won such signal popularity with Metro audiences in "A Yellow Streak," adds to the laurels which already are his in high degree on both the stage and screen. Never before has Mr. Barrymore had a role more admirably suited to the distinctive talents, which have won him his eminent place in the world of dramatic art, than that of Dorian Keene, the idealistic, but devoted husband the character he portrays in the present production. Grace Valentine, who shares stellar honors with Mr. Barrymore in the part of the whimsical wife, also handles a difficult role with rare artistry and in a fashion that captures the audience's sympathy. This is Miss Valentine's debut as a star on the Metro programme, although she is already well known to Metro audiences through he rsplendid work in "Black Fear," "The Blindness of Love" and other notable Metro pictures.

Charlie Chaplin at Grand.

Charlie Chaplin, the world's greatest comedian, comes to the Grand again today, presenting the second one of those great three-reel Chaplin pictures. The mammoth crowds who witnessed last Saturday's great three-reeler at the Grand is proof positive that the more the people can get of Chaplin, the better they like it. They would probably sit through twelve reels of Charlie Chaplin comedy if the opportunity were presented to them.

Well, today's great comedy starring the peerless million dollar comedy king is three reels in length, three-quarters of an hour of Charlie Chaplin in those rough roles in which he became famous to so many millions of people all over the world. The title is "The Gang Leader" and Charlie comes out as leader of a gang of cutthroats who do every conceivable brand of rascality from kidnapping a baby to stealing a house and lot. Charlie is the leader, but not through choice, as he has been kidnapped by them in the first place. And what they do is a plenty, too.

Charlie is surrounded by all the old Keystone favorites, including Fatty, Mabel, Ambrose, Walrus, Gussie, and all the other old favorites, and this, with other big features, should draw capacity crowds at the Grand today.

"The Girl From Frisco" Today.

The current chapter of that great Kalem serial, "The Girl From Frisco" starring beautiful Marin Sais, with True Boardman, in the two leading roles, is the best yet or this great series and is today a headliner attraction at the Bijou, entitled "The Reformation of Dog Hole."

This episode tells in a delightfully amusing manner the way Barbara Trent succeeded in reforming a rough western mining town when all other means fail. The cowboys and rough element of the town had a habit of periodically shooting the place up and destroying the property of the railroad of which her father was president. Barbara takes the place of the station agent, and for one week impersonates a role equal to that of the fearless Helen Gibson in railroad thrillers, by her winning ways very soon having every cowboy worshiping the ground she walks upon. It is full of thrills, with a pleasing mixture of comedy touches.

"Their Installment Furniture" is the latest great Vim Feature in the comedy line, starring those inimitable funmakers, Rosemary Theby and Harry Myers in the leading roles.

Then comes "Billy's Melodrama," a startling and laughable farce comedy from Vitagraph.

Good-Bye to Variety Review.

Today the Variety Review presents their last performances at the Victoria, and for the time being Wilmington will say good-bye to the famous Lynch Trio, who have so ably entertained them, with the aid of the other members of the all-star aggregation which Mr. Zarrow has gathered together under this banner.

The Lynch Trio today presents for the last times, their greatest act of the entire week. So said everyone who saw the show for the first time yesterday, and there were many others who declared that it was the best show of the week all the way through. Certain it is that Al Nuttle, the musical king, presented his very best, and an act that called for many rounds of applause on every presentation.

The Lynch Trio "present what is termed "something for our friends to remember us by" as they expect to play a return date before many months in Wilmington, and therefore put on their very greatest act to leave a lasting good impression. Never before has a trio of juvenile entertainers given such great pleasure to the crowds as have the Lynch Trio, and the other four acts, including Snyder and Vaughn, Hill and Edmund and Bessie Knowles, all present a great act for the Saturday crowds today.

"The Lilac Domino."

Andreas Dippel will present "The Lilac Domino" for a matinee and night performance at the Academy of Music on Saturday, Otcober 28. Unqualified praise and crowded houses have followed this production across the country thus far, repeating the plaudits which it won in its record breaking runs in New York City, Boston and Washington last season. The cast includes some of the finest voices in the country. Among them are Bradford Kirkbride, Yvonne Darle, Marie Hamilton, Joseph Carey, Edward Crawford, Allan Ramsey, Mlle. Andree Corday, and Archibald Gilchrist. There is a chorus of 50 radiantly youthful girls of the peach-blow variety in the chorus, who sing and dance in the most bewitching manner and display gorgeous costumes that are a fashion show in themselves. There is fun and merry making, dancing and laughter but everything is secondary to th beauty of the scors and the wonderfully catchy lyrics. In the matter of scenic and electrical effects there is a thrilling surprise in store for the patrons of the Academy of Music during this engagement.

KINSTON-NEW BERN LINE

Boat May Be Operated on Regular Schedule on Neuse.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Oct. 20.—A boat line to operate on a regular schedule between this city and New Bern is an idea that is meeting with favor from chamber of commerce members. The suggestion has been advanced that when a new service to be installed between Baltimore, Norfolk and New Bern is inaugurated, local business interests finance a line of shallow-draught steamers to connect Kinston with the route. The Baltimore-New Bern company is expected to start operations early in the coming year; it will put on one or two steel ships of a special design to begin with. The vessels will be of a build adapted to the waters they are to ply. The machinery will be well all, it is understood, and freight-carrying facilities will be great for craft of the size. River boats of four to five feet draught, built something on the order of th etype familiar to the rivers of this section, but a little narrower in beam because of the narrow and crooked channel of the Neuse, double-decked with the lower deck open, are proposed for the Kinston-New Bern line. A daily schedule could be maintained.

Wilson, N. C., Oct. 20.—It became known here today that L. C. Barefield, the man who was caught in Dildy and Agnew's store, will face charges of theft in two other counties He is wanted in New Bern and Beaufort. Goods that he had on his person were identified by the authorities of these two towns her etoday. It seems that he has robbed the department store of S. Copion & Son, in New Bern, and the express office in Beaufort. Barefield is now in the county jail here awaiting a hearing for burglary in this town a few nights ago. After serving his sentence here he will probably be turned over to the authorities of the other counties in which he is wanted.

APPEAL TO UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT IE DENIED

Graham County Murderers Sentenced to Die Next Friday.

Washington, Oct. 20.—Chief Justice White of the Supreme Court today denied a writ of appeal sought in behalf of Hardy N. Wiggins and Merrit A. Miller, of Graham county, N. C., convicted of murder and sentenced to be electrocuted next Friday at Raleigh.

Attorney J. D. Murphy, of Asheville, N. C., made the motion in their behalf today and, it was also understood, another Supreme Court justice refused to grant the writ of error which would stay the execution while the Supreme Court was considering the action of the North Carolina Supreme Court, which affirmed the convictions. The mountaineers were charged with murdering Philip Phillips, also of Graham county. The application to the Supreme Court justices, was made on ground that the jury which convicted Wiggins and Miller was prejudiced.

FORMER COLLECTOR KEITH RETURNS FROM BALTIMORE

Just Out of Hospital, Thinks Hughes Will be Elected.

(Special Star Telegram).

Washington, D. C., Oct. 20.—B. F. Keith, former collector of customs at Wilmington, now a prosperous farmer of Currie, stopped over in Washington en route from Baltimore to his North Carolina home. Mr. Keith believes Hughes will be elected by a safe majority. He admitted, however, that he has been in a Baltimore hospital for some days, and the majority of the people with whom he talked were hospital patients.

Postmaster A. Wayland Cook, of Greensboro, is here looking after departmental business. Mr. Cook says the situation in North Carolina politically was never better for the Democrats. He believes ten congressmen will be elected by the Democrats and every State officer returned, with an increased majority for President Wilson. F.R.A.

TO BE BIG DAY IN ONSLOW

Senator Simmons to Speak at Big Rally, November 6—Wilson-Bickett Club Has 100 Members.

(By Long Distance Telephone.)

Jacksonville, N. C., Oct. 20.—With one hundred members enrolled, a Wilson-Bickett club was organized here tonight and one hundred dollars was raised by the organization to help defray the expenses of a big barbecue dinner to be served at a great Democratic rally to be held here on Monday, October 6, the day before the election, when Senator F. M. Simmons will address the voters of Onslow county.

It is planned to make this one of the greatest political rallies ever held by any party in this county, and it is expected that thousands will be here to greet the chairman of the finance committee of the United States Senate, the most important man in that august body. Music will be furnished by a brass band.

At the organization meeting tonight addresses were made by Hon. Frank Thompson and J. Frank Wooten, Esq., and there was evidence of great enthusiasm that augurs well for fine work to be done for the Democratic National and State tickets in this section between now and election day. Wilson-Bickett clubs are to be organized throughout the county.

This is Opinion of Medical Men Speaking at Milwaukee, Wis.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 20.—Infantile paralysis still remains a mysterious disease to the medical profession, particularly as to its origin and to a great degree in its transmission, according to medical men who discussed the subject today at a meeting of the American Association for Study and Prevention of Infant Mortality.

Dr. Wade H. Frost, past assistant surgeon of the United States Health Service, and Dr. Henry M. Bracken, secretary of the Minnesota State Board of Health, were the principal speakers.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for several years," says Mrs. J. B. Whittaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble.

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Thedford's Black-Draught, which I did, and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught."

Thedford's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.

TOP O' THE MORNING.

Every man alone is sincere.
—EMERSON.

One way to keep out of a row is to see it first.

"The record is the reason" the drift is toward Wilson.

Cotton does not know where it's going, but it's surely on the way.

The negro problem in the South is confined almost exclusively to the North—on paper.

"The Last Rose of Summer" is pleasing, but the last rise of flour is what is the matter with Hannah.

When Teddy was president he demanded "Raisuli dead or Perdicaris living." Our recollection is that Raisuli acted like Villa and avoided being found dead.

When Taft and Roosevelt clutched hands they sternly avoided anything like a smile. Our enemies are given to understand that we are not only willing to shake hands but join them in a smile to show that we look upon hard feelings as the grossest kind of absurdity.

A man out West has learned to cook so the petty domestic duties of his wife will not interfere with her earnest participation in the civic and political activities which characterize good citizenship. Apt as not the old fraud enjoys the life of an animated feather duster.

Those who vote for Judge Hughes under the belief that he will do something if he is elected, have to guess what the dickens he will do. Up to date he has laid no proposition before the house. He has wasted his time hammering on an anvil which has been ringing clear with a chorus of great achievement.

The American Association of Park Commissioners urges the passage of a law compelling the wearing of skirts by both made and female bathers at summer resorts. Rather than wear skirts, however, obstinate males will insist on wearing bathing suits which make them look like a cross between a stove lifted and a paid of buggy shafts.

The man who has something to sell has no complaint to make about the high cost of living. However, the man who has to buy what he should have produced himself has nobody to blame but himself. All producers are having a picnic at this time, so when farmers complaint it is a sign that thy are buyers of what they should have raised. Men often attribute high or low prices to politics to suit their prejudices, when it is our improvidence or lack of foresight that is the matter with us. Those who have raised something to sell have the advantage of those of us who raise all the cain.

Hon. N. A. Sinclair, of Fayetteville, Democratic elector at large, has been camping on the trail of the Hon. Linney, Republican candidate for governor. At Asheville the Fayetteville Scotchman handed out proof to the effect that the sectionalism of Linney's party today is only characteristic of a party born and bred in sectionalism and steeped in it from its birth to the day of Charles Evasion Hughes who now demands that the South must be put out of the saddle. Hughes only brings the G. O. P.'s sectionalism up to date, beginning with its monstrous crime against the South when it enfranchised the negroes and loosed upon the South a horde of ignorance which put the very civilization of this section to the test. Who would vote for the candidate of a party that always has and even now merits the condemnation of men with rich red Southern blood bounding through their veins?

THEY RAP WILSON

Two young Republicans endeavored to enlighten a Wilmington audience on the political issues, at a meeting of the Hughes club at the court house last Thursday night. The speakers were former State Senator C. Ed. Taylor, a Southport lawyer, and Mr. H. E. Rogers, a member of the Wilmington bar.

"Republicans Rap Wilson," says the headline of The Star's account of the speaking in yesterday's paper. Of course, they did, since that is all the Republicans can do, for they are short of issues and are, absolutely without material upon which to base an argument. They rapped Wilson, but they all do it, for the reason that somebody might be boob enough to take it for a hit. Nevertheless, a few very impotent raps do not constitute an argument, so those who heard the two young Republicans speak were only entertained. Because of the lack of argument in their speeches, those who have inquiring minds and are anxious to know, had to leave that meeting with intellects on the verge of starvation.

There are certain men in this world who are from Missouri and they insist that the politicians must "show" them. If there were any such of the Hughes club meeting, they wanted to know what the Republican party proposes to do in the way of surpassing the constructive work of the Wilson administration. They want to know what good things the Republican party is going to propose to do for the people. If it proposes to do any old thing, it is time the proposition were put before the house, but along that line there was nothing doing at the Republican speaking on Thursday night. Of course, there wasn't, for the whole Republican party has no proposition to make. We'd like to see it get up nerve enough to make just one proposition, so it can be fairly considered.

Oh, yes, it has one soft pedal proposition and that is a protective tariff, although the Republican party cannot be trusted by the people to give this country an equitable and just protective tariff, one that is fair and reasonable and that will not unreasonably burden the people for the plutocratic beneficiaries of the tariff. The reason that we say that is because the Taft administration monkeyed with the tariff in 1909 and passed the monstrosity known as the Payne-Aldrich-Smoot act. We all know what a monstrous and iniquitous tariff law it was.

However, maybe it is not fair for Democrats to call a Republican protective tariff bill iniquitous and monstrous, but Democrats don't have to call it by those names. They can leave it all to Colonel Roosevelt, for he headed a revolt against it. Because of it he declares that the Taft administration had "betrayed the people." As a matter of fact, the betrayal was so gross that two-thirds of the Republican party spurned the party of their fathers and followed Roosevelt into the Progressive party. It's no use to say that is so, for it is history known to all Republicans, Progressives, Democrats and street loafers.

The fact is the G. O. P.'s 1909 betrayal of the people is the everlasting reason that the Republican party went down and out in 1912 and is again going to be put on the mat this year, because that is where it deserves to be. It deserved it in 1912 because it enacted a ruinous tariff for the enrichment of special interests and the graft in it was so monstrous that the G. O. P. carried only two litle states in 1912. Therefore, because the Republican party is in undisputed co-opartnership with special interests and has been guilty of robbing the people for their partners, it cannot be trusted to pass a protective tariff law or to get in control of the people's government at Washington. Robbing Peter to pay Paul has played out. Indeed, if we favored a protective tariff, we certainly would not trust the Republican party to enact it, for the very good reason that it is still in alliance with the gluttonous plutocrats who cried for so much graft that it put their ravenous party clean out of business. Nobody can dispute it for a minute.

They rapped Wilson. Of course, they did. They rapped him because he "did not carry out certain planks in the Democratic platform of 1912." Maybe he didn't, but what of it, since the Republicans are not promising to carry out those alleged neglected planks of the Democratic platform? If those planks are so vital, why do not the Republican spellers promise us that the G. O. P. will carry them out all right? Let them get busy and tell us what the G. O. P. will do, besides doing the people, and then we can judge whether it is an honest injun or simply a carping and hypocritical critic.

Wilson got a harmless rap at that court house meeting because it was charged that he had put a protective tariff on dyestuffs to "catch" the Progressives who believe in protection. As a matter of fact, the infant dye industry seemed to need a little help in order to get a start, so the Democrats recognized its necessity and granted the industry reasonable tariff protection till it could get upon its feet and be able to do without it. That is the only kind of protection we need, so when the Democrats are ready to protect a legitimate industry with a reasonable amount of tariff protection, the natural inference is that the Democratic party is the only party that the people can trust to stand by a legitimate industry. It even challenges the support of good Republicans, because they can observe that the Democratic party legislates wisely and does the square thing when it is necessary to establish a new and desirable industry in America. We don't know whether or not that will "catch" Progressives, but it ought to and it ought to catch Republicans and Democrats, too, for they can see that we have one wise and reasonable party that the people can trust to handle questions which involve taxation upon the people. The Democrats head off the ravenous wolves of protection but they stand by legitimate industry.

Anyhow, and meanwhile also, nevertheless, even so, notwithstanding, in brief and at length, moreover and furthermore, in fact and indeed, however, what have the Republicans been doing to "catch" the Progressives? They even nominated Judge Hughes to catch them, but the Progressives know that it was done to fool them, for at no time during this campaign has Judge Hughes promised a bit of progressive legislation. He even denounces the progressive legislation of the Wilson administration and threatens to repeal the legislation that has done so much for th epeople. Of course, the Republicans will not carry out the so-called neglected planks of the Baltimore platform, but, worse still, they propose to demolish the vital legislation that was promised in the Wilson platform. Wilson saw that the big things had to be attended to first, so he carried out the really vital planks and the people know that Wall Street no longer controls the supply of money needed to handle the people's business.

Why don't the Republicans praise Wilson for the big things done by his administration instead of knocking the things that nobody cares two straws about? The people will judge Wilson by the big things that he has done and not by the little things that Republicans say he didn't do. If he had done them, they would knock them, too, but if the Republicans propose to do anything at all, except to give us more iniquitous tariff protection for millionaires, they had better get busy and tell us what it is. They have less than two weeks in which to do it, but if they have a single proposition to make, they haven't the nerve to make it. They are afraid of the people and surely the people are afraid of them. Let them come across with just one or two propositions, for raps and knocks for a man who has done great things do not appeal to the common sense of people.

IF HUGHES SHOULD BE ELECTED

We know our happy condition under the administration of President Wilson and we know how we have fared during the last three and a half years. We know what has been achieved for us by the Democratic Congress, and altogether we know that our lot has been of a most satisfactory character in a general way. We have been doing better than we could have expected, and in many particulars that is so because of what the Wilson administration has done for us in a constructive way.

However, we are being asked to change administrations, but it is up to us to make a change or to "let well enough alone." While we are doing so well it would be very foolish in us to make a change, because we could not possibly expect conditions to be improved by changing a Democratic for a Republican administration. In fact, we would make matters worse and thus it is that the sage Norfolk Virginian-Pilot warns us in time:

"If Mr. Hughes should be elected, which may the powers forefend, he promises to restore protection in all its pristine and predatory glory. That is to say the farmers of the country are to be forced once more to buy in the dearest and sell in the cheapest market; while the workingmen are again to see products of the mills and factories protected against foreign competition and no restriction put upon the importation of cheap labor. That is a cheering prospect for the tillers of the soil and the toilers who keep the wheels of industry in motion as well as for the masses of the people who are consumers. It promises to raise up another generation of billionaires; but what of the multitude, the hewers of wood and drawers of water, the ninety and nine millions to whom protection spells loss instead of profit?"

Our valued contemporary gives us fair warning, and it can be noted that we have every reason to fear a change in administrations. Hughes has promised nothing in behalf of the people, but he has promised to restore a protective tariff for special interests. While that would seriously affect the farmers, they are in a much better position to stand it than those of us who are buyers. However, we would all be in the same boat with a protective tariff under which the prices for manufactured products would be further advanced. Of course, that is what a high tariff means and what its object is. We ought to dread the thought of such a thing at this time, because no such a tariff is needed by a single industry in this country.

While Hughes has promised to help special interests and has made no promise to the masses at all, he has plainly indicated that he would undo all the legislation of the Wilson administration. That certainly would prove a severe blow to the people, for the reason that should a high tariff be added to such a calamity, the masses could only look gloomily upon the future with a Hughes administration at Washington.

If Hughes were elected and we could be assured that he would let our new banking system stand and would not molest other beneficial legislation, we would not have so much reason to fear a change of administrations. However, Hughes has told us of his high tariff purposes and also of his purpose to undo what Wilson has done. He has been pretty frank in saying so, hence the people know what to expect if they vote for Hughes or any other Republican.

SEE THE SUN RISE.

Get up! Do your sleeping at night and do not curl up in bed like an earwig until you have wasted from two to four hours of sunlight. Get a good night's sleep and get up in time to see the glorious autumn sunrise. Get up in time to welcome a new day of life and take advantage of the world's best light in which to do something or to seek new opportunities. Many opportunities come and go while you are yawning on the verge of more sleep and then some.

When the daylight dawns all nature wakes up, but human nature is dead to the world in sleep. Of course, there are many early risers but a statistician has figured it out that only one fourth of the 103,000,000 people in the United States are up and about when the great orb of day is shedding its light for their use. The sun, he figures, wastes at least one third of its light on at least 75,000,000 sleepy-headed people. They waste one third of their day light and neither utilize it for work nor for recreation. They miss all the fresh, invigorating morning air and are still shut up in some stuffy room for hours after the health giving air has been missed.

The statistician figures that three-fourths of the people of America have contracted the habit of undermining the health of the populace either from the wastefulness of night and daylight, or the contraction of bad habits. He says each person can store up energy by sleeping at night so he can get up as soon as the world is lighted for him without a cent of cost in order that he may work during the hours of light. Instead of that there are people who sleep and add to the cost of living every hour they sleep after the sun is up. They are drones and yet they expect 25,000,000 early rises to do the work and feed them at low cost. He estimates that 50,000,000 people who could be achieving and producing, waste many precious hours of daylight and at 15 cents an hour for every three hours wasted each day the total loss is $9,000,000 a day, or more than two and a half billion dollars a year, allowing nearly 100 days for Sundays and holidays. He declares that we are wasting time and losing health and money and thus increasing the cost of living for ourselves and everybody else.

Perhaps the statistician is right when he says that the people frolic around and lose sleep and live hard and get up in the morning feeling worse than a stewed witch. Large numbers are grouchy and they account for the unrest among the people, for those who work and have something are never around with campiaints and putting the blame on politics. He figures it out that a man is either prosperous or down and out in spite of politics and that all the politics of the bunk variety in the United States would not make a drone prosperous nor keep an industrious, thrifty man from having plenty and being contented with his lot in the ordinary course of life.

The statistician says he has been a drone himself and that it helps him to know. He speaks as a reformed drone and he wants all the drones to wake up. He says the men are not the only drones, for there are others, but he declares that the male drones get up late and always make it unpleasant for the females of the species, because things are not running like a clock, owing to too much sleep. He blames the high cost of living and the physchology of unrest and the devilishness of war on the drones. They get the whole world in a stew, but if they would work and keep busy while the sky is lighted up by the world's great orb, they would not have time to get grouchy, participate in rows and get so uncompromising that they want to go to war.

AN APPEAL FOR SUFFERING ARMENIANS.

To the Editor of The Star:

The Ministers' Association begs to lay before the churches of Wilmington and the public generally during today and tomorrow, the cause of the suffering Armenians, Syrians and Persians.

By proclamation of the President of the United States, these two days have been set aside as a time of brotherly consideration of these afflicted peoples. Perhaps the most afflicted of all these is Armenia, a Christian country since the days of the Apostles.

The Turks drafted many of the men into the army, then upon one pretext or another sorted them out, marched them aside and shot them down. In many sections the Turks gathered the many sections the Turks gathered the or marched them away, and they never returned. Young men, boys and old men from twelve to thirteen years old and upward, have been murdered by thousands and tens of thousands.

Many of the girls and women have suffered death or worse. Whole communities have been driven from their homes, over mountains and across deserts, and that without sufficient food, clothing or attention. Many died by the wayside, many are perishing while you read these words, and the moans of the dying and the restless cries of little ones starving fall upon the ears of the missionaries and rise up to God. And we are our brother's keeper.

The treatment of the women and girls by the Kurds and Turks cannot be told here. Where they are being allowed to live, their living is worse than death.

Of the two million Armenians at the outbreak of the war, it is estimated that one million have perished already, and unless we of America save them, then soon very many of the other millions must die. Shall we not impoverish ourselves if thereby, we can save some?

Relative to our observance by our people of the two relief days, Dr. J. M. Wells, of the First Presbyterian church, introduced on last Monday and the Ministerial Association unanimously adopted the following resolution:

Resolved,—That we commend this cause to our citizens and to our churches, and that the chairman of the Ministers' Association be authorized to prepare an article for publication, calling the attention of our community to the importance of assisting this cause in every way possible.

Dr. Wells speaking of the resolution said in part: "The literature that comes to my desk, telling of the sufferings of this people, is so heart-rending that I have almost ceased to read it." These suffering men, women and children, are Christians. Their Christianity may not be perfect, but they are Christians, and their only part in this great war is to suffer, and whatever may be our attitude toward the great powers involved in this struggle we know that each of them is in part, responsible for the war, but here in our country in no wise responsible, it has had nothing whatever to do with the war, its only part is to suffer, and the sufferings of other sections of the war zone are but child's play, as compared to the sufferings of this poor people.

Surely, before God, we should come to their aid.

The public should know the following facts: That the Turkish government has granted permission for this relief work to be carried on; that it will take $5,000,000 to save this people from present death and return them to self support; that the American committee is composed of men of every communion, and that they are men of highest integrity and of international reputation, and furthermore, that this committee will place one hundred cents of every dollar sent them in actual relief work.

This they do by paying all transportation charges out of their own resources.

Perhaps in all our lives no greater opportunity for service has ever been offered us. It is the Christ who suffers. What shall we do with Him?

W. V. M'RAE.
Acting Chairman Ministers' Association.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The farmers of Davie county are now busy shipping and marketing their tobacco. Prices contaiuue very high—the highest they have been in thirty or forty years, and the farmers are at last receiving a just compensation for their labors.—Mocksville Enterprise.

Next week is Fair Week for the upper Cape Fear section, when the Cape Fear Fair will open in Fayetteville on the 24th. Let all the people of the surrounding country remember that the Cape Fear Fair is their Fair, and they are cordially invited and expected to attend it.—Fayetteville Observer.

We have been called Doctor, Colonel and Professor but it remained for a writer in the Biblical Recorder to apply the title "venerable." That is the limit, beloved. Mollycoddle, Pussyfoot or Populist would beat it. But we thank our young friend for his good intentions.—Charity and Children.

William Jennings Bryan finds that in the Middle West where the political fighting is the hottest that "there is a mighty current of public sentiment that will sweep President Wilson to a victorious re-election." The people throughout the entire country should see to it that Big Money, Monopoly, the Special Interests, and the favored few do not ride back into power under the false flag of service to the people.—Raleigh News and Observer.

All of them are important and should be ratified by the people, but one of them is so entirely reasonable and necessary that we do hope the vote in its favor will be uninamiuos. We refer to the amendment taking out of the hands of the Legislature the local bills that consume most of the time of that body, and compel hasty and ill-considered action on matters of the gravest importance, and that call for the most patient investigation and research. Sixty days are none too many for the consideration of questions of State-wide interest; but with the catendar cluttered up with thousands of bills that could be far more intelligently considered by the local authorities, the time given to matters in which the people generally are interested is entirely too short. We do not send men to the Legislature merely to pass bills, but to serve the State; and sometimes the State is better served by killing than by passing measures. The tax question for instance, which is the most vital thing before us, ought to be patiently and earnestly considered. It is too big a question to be disposed of in a week's time. And there are kindred questions calling for deliberate and patient investigation. Let us save that amendment, brethren, if we lose all the others.—Charity and Children, Thomasville.

Messrs. Godwin and McCaskill made their rounds in Robeson last week and from all accounts they "roared you as gently as any sucking dove" in all their speeches in this county. There was no mud-slinging, whereat we are glad. Last week, in Cumberland, according to entertaining accounts of several engagements sent to the Greensboro Daily News by its versatile Tom Bost, there were some hot times. In bold headlines over the report of one engagement it was proclaimed that "McCaskill slings mud 25 minutes and seems to enjoy it." And a reading of the news story seemed to justify the headlines. In these news stories the reporter said that both the candidates slung some mud, but he gave Mr. Godwin the credit of having to fire back because McCaskill had put things on that plane. "It was a wonderful show," said Bost about one of the speaking engagements in Cumberland. But in Robeson it seems to have been different. There were some pleasantries, but no hot hot. All the Democrats we have heard speak of the engagement in Lumberton were delighted with the way Mr. Godwin handled his opponent. Mr. McCaskill did not seem to get anywhere with his criticism of the Democratic party. Which is not to be wondered at. He has got a mighty hard road to travel in trying to make intelligent people believe that the record of the Democratic party is not a record to be proud of, and that it would be best to send him to Congress. The sovereigns are well pleased with Mr. Godwin and it is safe to say that Mr. Godwin is stronger in Robeson today than he was before the campaign last week. Democrats are proud of him as compared with his opponent.—Lumberton Robesonian.

The Daily News suggested some days ago that some lawyer of the committee appoined by the bar association to revise and perfect the Torrens land law should answer the charges brought against the system by a local attorney in the news columns of this paper some time since. The gauntlet of the Greensboro lawyer has been picked up by Attorney Margaret Berry, of Charlotte, and we take pleasure in presenting her reply this morning. We recommend it to the attention of every land owner, and particularly to every prospective purchaser of land. The antagonist of the Torrens system attacked it partly on the ground that it is expensive to put into operation—too expensive, in his opinion, to be widely adopted. This protagonist claims that the total court costs will not be over $15, provided there is no cloud on the title under the old system; to this must be added the lawyer's fee for preparing the abstract, the size of which will depend entirely upon circumstances. In exchange for this expenditure the land-owner receives a deed that cannot be attacked in any way, shape, or form; a deed of such a nature that he can transfer it to another at an expense of a dollar in money and an hour in time; a deed on which he can raise a loan as speedily as he could on a bond, or a stock certificate. It strikes us that that sort of a deed is worth a good deal more than $15. Unless the lawyer's fee is enormous, registration under the Torrens system ought to be a profitable investment. We think that the basic reasons for the slowness with which registration under the Torrens system has gone on in this State is found in the statement that "the great saving * * * is in transactions subsequent to the original registration." The temptation is strong for the holder of a deed registered under the old system to "pass the buck." He is satisfied as to his own title; why worry about the next fellow? Caveat emptor is a principle harder to root out of our land title system than any other line of business. To man who expects to hold his land until he dies, and who never expects to try to borrow on it, there is not much incentive to register under the Torrens system.—Greensboro News.

DR. STONER WILL BE STATIONED IN CANADA

Former Surgeon in Charge of Local Hospital Goes to Montreal.

Returns to Wilmington for Brief Visit After Strenuous Summer in New York Fighting Infantile Paralysis Epidemic.

Dr. J. B. Stoner, for the past two years surgeon in charge of the United States Marine Hospital, in Wilmington, who spent the past summer in New York assisting in the fight against the infantile paralysis epidemic, has been ordered by the government to take charge of the immigration work in Montreal, Canada, and after spending two or three months at the immigration station at Ellis Island, in New York, he will take charge of his new duties.

Dr. Stoner returned to Wilmington yesterday to officially transfer the duties of his position here to Dr. John C. Wessell, who has been designated by the government as acting assistant surgeon. As all the patients are now treated at the James Walker Memorial hospital, the local marine hospital will not be kept open, but later it is expected that it will be made into a research institution for the study of certain diseases. Possibly one of these will be pellagra, which has puzzled the physicians so much recently.

Dr. Wessell has been acting as assistant surgeon during the absence of Dr. Stoner in New York, the past summer. He has made daily visits to the James Walker Memorial hospital, which has the contract to take care of the government patients, and has supervised their treatment. He will continue to act in this capacity, possibly until the local marine hospital is developed into a research institution.

Dr. Stoner will be stationed in Montreal, where he will have supervision of the inspection of all persons entering the United States from that city. By special arrangements with Canada, the United States officers are placed on the Canadian side, which saves the expense of additional buildings and greatly facilitates the work as both immigrants to the United States and emigrants from this country can be examined at the same station.

Dr Stoner is not a stranger to this work, having been engaged in it for a while some 15 years ago, but more recently he has been connected with public health work. He is now "getting onto the ropes" at Ellis Island, the largest immigrant station in the world, and will go to Montreal about the first of the year. He will return to New York tomorrow night after officially turning over the affairs of the local public health work of the government to Dr. John C. Wessell.

"I spent a very strenuous summer in New York helping in the work of trying to find ways and means of stamping out the infantile paralysis epidemic," said Dr. Stoner last night. "At first we were handicapped by a lack of surgeons and physicians and when we finally did get enough to look after the treatment of the sick, the epidemic was practically at an end.

"While we did considerable research work and gathered a mass of data from which it is hoped that something definite as to the cause of the disease and methods of prevention may be obtained, yet a large part of our work was in seeing that the disease did not spread. We definitely established the fact, we believe, that the disease is not transmitted except by contact and only in rare instances do adults have the disease. In our work in New York, we confined our inspection work practically to those between the ages of two and 16 years.

"New Jersey, for instance, had quarantined against the disease and so it was necessary whenever anyone made application for a permit to go into that State for someone to go and see that the person or persons did not live in an infected district. In a city as large as New York, it can be readily seen how much work this would involve."

Dr. Stoner states that the prevalence of the disease now has reached normal. For a number of years past, there have been on an average of five or six cases of the disease to break out every day, as at present, but never before has there been an epidemic. All of the theories have proven inadequate and efforts must now be made to establish new ones that will square with the facts.

NIGHT SCHOOL WILL BE OPENED AT HIGH SCHOOL

Instruction Will Be Given in Stenography and Typewriting.

Request having been made that night classes in stenography and typewriting he held the High School committee has decided to open the school for classes two nights in the week in the commercial room of the High School building. The classes will be held on Tuesdays and Thursday from 7:30 p. m. to 9 p. m.

A small tuition fee will be charged, but the classes are open to any interested citizen of Wilmington. All persons who contemplate taking advantage of this course, are requested to confer with Mr. F. V. Pultz director of the Commercial Department at the High School, or else telephone him at No. 893 L3.

The establishment of a night school for the teaching of stenography and typewriting is an excellent move, and it is the hope all progressive citizens that the schools will eventually go further and take up the teaching of other subjects that will give those who are unable to take advantage of instruction in the public schools in the day time a chance to improve themselves at night. That is, that a free night school be opened in the city for all who care to attend.

Leaves A. C. L. Post.

Mr. Albert F. Perry has resigned his position in the treasurer's office of the Atlantic Coast Line to become manager of the Accident and Health Department of James & James, Inc. In addition to managing this department, Mr. Perry will sell general life insurance. Mr. Perry is a native of Portland, Ore., but has made his home here for a year or more, and has a wide circle of friends who will wish him well in his new undertaking.

REPUBLICANS NEED ORATORS

Iredell Meares, Esq., of Wilmington, Heeds the Call and Leaves Today For West Virginia.

Iredell Meares, Esq., Progressive candidate for governor of North Carolina in the last gubernatorial election and now the Republican nominee for judge of the Superior Court for this judicial district, has been called to assist the G. O. P. forces in some of the doubtful states of the North and leaves today for Charleston, W. Va., where on Monday night he will deliver the first of a series of political addresses.

Mrs. Meares said yesterday that he would be away for the remainder of the campaign and would speak in a large number of cities. It is not improbable that he will be called to Ohio to make an effort to stem the tide in that pivotal State as the Republicans are frankly scared that Woodrow Wilson is going to pile up a majority there and they will leave no stone unturned to see that he doesn't, if they can.

Mr. Meares will be able to present the Republican side of the argument in an able manner. However, like other Republican orators in this campaign, he has got a mountain of achievement to go up against, but he will not shirk his duty as he sees it and the West Virginia folks are due to hear some real oratory from the land of Dixie.

The Republicans evidently are making a desperate effort to swing the tide their way, as they have already requisitioned Col. Ike Meekins, of this State, for service in New Jersey. They may call for others as the campaign progresses for everyone, the Republicans most of all, recognizes that Wilson is growing stronger each day.

MR. WHITE, OF BIRMINGHAM, AT DOCK ST. CHURCH SUNDAY

Revival Service Conducted by Rev. Mr. Reynolds Largely Attended.

The revival services, which were begun last Sunday at the Dock Street Christian church, will be continued tomorrow. The sermon Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock will be delivered by Rev. Belt White, of Birmingham, Ala., while the morning sermon at 11 o'clock will be delivered by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Reynolds.

The service at the church last night was largely attended. Rev. Mr. Reynolds preached an able and effective sermon on the subject of "Conscience." The song service was an unusually attractive one, the Alexander Songs being used. It was led by Mr. L. E. Allen. The sermon Sunday night will be preceded by an interesting musical programme which will include a solo by Mr. J. W. Buck and a duet by Miss Hazel Howie and Mr. L. L. Walton.

Rev. Mr. Reynolds took his text from John 8:9, "And they which heard it ,being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst."

The minister in explaining the text and concerning whom it was written, told of how Jesus was teaching the people in the temple when the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery and set her in the midst, to see whether He would deal with her according to the Mosaic law which commanded that she be stoned, and if not ,that they might accuse Him.

They asked Jesus, said Mr. Reynolds, what they ought to do with her. At first the Saviour stooped down, and wrote on the ground as though he heard them not, but when they continued asking Him, said: "He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her."

"And their conscience convicted them of their sin," said the minister in conclusion, for they all straightway left the place."

BARBECUE AT GREENFIELD

Brotherhood Bible Class of First Presbyterian Church Had Delightful Outing Last Night.

If you have ever attended an old-fashioned country barbecue and watched a bunch of jolly fellows bubbling over with good spirits and good fellowship, wade in to an excellently prepared meal of pig, chicken, 'possum and sweet "'taters" then you know what happened when about 80 members of the Brotherhood Bible class of the First Presbyterian church gathered around the festive "board" of a barbecue on the banks of Greenfield Lake last night.

It wasn't a full dress affair, where waiters with spotless clothes and wooden Indian countenances, waited on your every need, but instead, one of the kind where you wade into the food with nature's weapons, assisted by a few culinary auxiliaries, and get delightfully greasy, and feel the joy of living and of being a part of nature.

And that 'possum and chicken and pig and "'taters" was cooked right. Just ask anybody that was there. And, then, too, the crowd was prepared to do it justice. It is alleged that Councilman W. D. McCaig was so busy dissecting the rear locomotive member of Mr. Possum that he never heard the toastmaster call on him for a speech, so Bryan's list of "World's Famous Orations" lost another addition.

A the conclusion of the meal brief talks were made by Col. Walker Taylor, Messrs. Louis Hall, George Harriss, R. A. Brand, E. B. Johnson, R. B. Dunn, C. W. Woodward, H. Lacy Hunt, E. H. Munson, P. Heinsberger, and A. W. Mason, Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells, Rev. J. S. Crowley and Rev. A. J. Howell. Mr. R. A. Brand acted as toastmaster, and Rev. Mr. Crowell made the invocation. The meeting closed by the singing "In the Sweet Bye and Bye."

The barbecue was prepared under the direction of a committee composed of Messrs. S. J. Davis, P. Heinsberger, chairman; J. A. Farley, W. D. Hall and F. A. Thompson.

A special car took the party from Front and Princess streets to Greenfield and return.

FORTY CONTRIBUTORS ADD TO WILSON FUND

Six Committee Chairmen Make Report of Donations.

Rocky Joint Citizens Send in Goodly Amount—Others From Out of City. Executive Committee Meets This Evening—Notes.

There were just forty additional contributions to the Woodrow Wilson campaign fund yesterday and while the amounts were in the main small, the number of persons interested in the day's work indicates that the people are becoming aroused and that before the end of the campaign, the Wilmington Club will have reached its goal without a doubt.

Wilson admirers from out of the city are coming in splendidly just now, 18 citizens of Rocky Point yesterday having sent to The Star, through Mr. W. W. Pearsall, $16.75 in popular subscriptions for the fund. This was very much appreciated by the local workers for Wilson and the amounts are duly acknowledged in the list below.

Another out-of-town contributor yesterday was Mr. Nelson MacRae, of New Haven, Conn., a Wilmingtonian, who though absent, is still interested in the old town and best of all in a Democratic president. This amount is credited to Mr. D. H. Howes' committee.

Capt. Warren L. Jones, whose tireless work has been of great assistance to the local committees, also yesterday sent in a neat contribution from three of Roseboro's progressive citizens, Messrs. P. M. White, O. E. Underwood and A. R. Harris. These amounts are also credited to Mr. Howes' committee as is shown below.

For the benefit of any others out of the city who may desire to contribute, The Star will be glad to receive the amount or amounts, acknowledge the same and put the money into the proper channels as soon as possible.

The executive committee of the Wilmington Club will meet at 6 o'clock this evening at the office of President W. A. McGirt, in the Masonic Temple, and at this meeting it is desired to have every chairman of sub-committees and every other committeeman who would like to enlist under the banner of "peace and prosperity." It is also hoped to have at this meeting Mr. Hugh MacRae, treasurer of the State Finance committee, who has been of great material help to the local club as well as having been inspirational in his talks and the wisdom of his counsel.

QUARANTINE WILL BE LIFTED AT COLONIAL SUNDAY NIGHT

Residents of Apartments Will Get Freedom at 6 O'clock.

The quarantine which was established about 13 days ago on the lodgers at the Colonial Apartments, following the discovery of a case of infantile paralysis there, will be lifted Sunday night at 6 o'clock according to an announcement made yesterday by Dr. Charles T. Nesbitt, county health officer, provided no additional cases develop there.

It has been necessary to maintain a guard at the building to enforce the quarantine regulations against the passing of people from and into the building, but no unnecessary hardships have been imposed upon the occupants and relatives have been permitted to stand on the sidewalk and talk with their families on the porch of the building.

The condition of the little Chandler boy who was removed from the building to the isolation ward of the James Walker Memorial Hospital when it was found that he was suffering with infantile paralysis, is reported as considerably improved and his recovery is expected. The removal of the patient to the Hospital isolation ward has shortened the period of the quarantine at the Colonial by several weeks ,it is stated.

WILMINGTON OUGHT TO HELP

Mr. J. P. Herring Shows Need of Co-Operation in Order to Bring Loan Bank to State.

The Federal Farm Loan Association of Wilmington will have one or more representatives at Raleigh on next Tuesday at a meeting of the Federal Farm Loan Board to be held for the purpose of considering the advisability of locating one of the 12 district banks in that city, Mr. J. P. Herring, president of the local organization, said yesterday and in a statement last night he urges that Wilmington also have representatives at the meeting to urge that the bank be located in Raleigh.

"It seems to me worth while for Wilmington to co-operate in this matter," says Mr. Herring, "and help to pull this institution to North Carolina. Virginia has one of the Federal Reserve banks and will get this unless the citizens of North Carolina pull together and pull hard." Mr. Herring's statement follows:

"As stated in a recent issue of your paper the Federal Farm Loan Board is to be in Raleigh October 24th to consider the location of one of the 12 district Federal Farm Loan Banks at Raleigh. The farmers of this community are very much interested in this proposition and are anxious to see this bank located in Raleigh. We have already organized a Federal Farm Loan Association in Wilmington with 500 shares subscribed and with prospects of as many more; thus showing the interest of the rural element of our people in this move. We would be glad to see a delegation from Wilmington representing the organizations of our city in Raleigh at this meeting October 24th.

"It seems to me worth while for Wilmington to co-operate in this matter and help to pull this institution to North Carolina. Petersburg and Norfolk are trying for it and Virginia is pulling with them. Virginia has one of the Federal Reserve Banks and will get this unless the citizens of North Carolina pull together and pull together hard. We are asking Raleigh to co-operate with us in deepwater, freight rates and other projects for Wilmington. It seems to us a good chance to place a few coals of fire on her head if she has not been co-operating with us as she should.

"The Federal Farm Loan act, under which this proposed bank is being established, provides loans to farmers at a rate not higher than 6 per cent., for a term of from five to 40 years, and paid off by semi-annual or annual payments. The loans are made on first mortgages for half the appraised value of the land, plus one-fifth the insured values of the improvements.

"The Federal Farm Loan Associations are local organizations to assist the district bank in making loans and seeing to it that the money borrowed is used for the purpose as stated in the application for the loan. These loans are made for purposes only of paying off outstanding mortgages buying stock, drainage, buying necessary equipments or other improvements that are approved by the board. Our farmers need money for these purposes and there is no doubt but that they will make use of this money and in a way that will build up our farms and farm interests. A few thousand dollars used in tilling some of our farm lands will produce double the present crops and bring many thousands of dollars to the farmers and in equal proportion reduce the cost of living in the city. For instance, tomatoes are now selling for twice their usual price on our market because the excessive rains ruined the vines in the field. Had we had these plots tiled drained they would have yielded good crops. The farmers would have had tomatoes to sell and the consumers tomatoes to eat at half their present cost. One would have made more money,—the other would have saved more.

"The Federal Farm Loan Association of Wilmington will have one or more representatives at Raleigh the24th and I fear the farmer will feel that our city friends are not interested in them if they do not manifest some active interest in this Federal Farm Loan Bank. Co-operation is the word that spells success for New Hanover, for Wilmington, for North Carolina and for the location of this bank in Raleigh. Co-operation means working together not sitting together, or sleeping together.

"Yours truly,

"J. P. HERRING."

WILMINGTON AGAIN GREETED WITH CLOUDLESS SKIES

Much Colder Weather Promised For Today and Sunshine Will Continue.

Wilmington welcomed with becoming dignity yesterday the return of cloudless skies and the balmy breezes that blew from the South while an autumn sun did its best to make everything look like spring after several days of rain and general sloppiness. However ,the balmy breezes were destined to be short lived for the weather man promised much lower temperatures for today and there will doubtless be much scurrying around for discarded wraps and winter clothes.

With a threatened scarcity of coal in sight ,there will doubtless be many engaged is laying in an additional supply of winter fuel for the time for cold weather is now here.

The maximum temperature yesterday was 80 degrees and it seemed really warmer than the thermometer indicated. Fair and much colder is the forecast for today.

ENGINEERS COMPLIMENTED

Wilmington and Charlotte Companies Made Record in Leaving Camp. Due in El Paso Tonight.

The North Carolina engineers of the National Guard composed of the Wilmington and Charlotte companies were complimented by the Quartermaster Department on entraining and departing from Camp Glenn with more rapidity and ease than any organization that preceded them to the border. This is more notable because the engineer organizations have only been in existence for a short time and its equipment requires several cars.

However, Capt. Geo. W. Gillette, the popular and efficient commanding officer, does not boast of this record as he says thorough efficiency and promptness is the middle name of the engineering division.

The train bearing the engineers reached Montgomery on Wednesday night and is due in El Paso tonight. A letter from Montgomery received yesterday states that a bad storm was raging in that section and that the L. & N. railroad was washed up badly with the prospects that the engineers would have to stay there for some time.

Order and discipline on the train was reported to be very good and the boys were having a good time.

MISS SUSAN ELLA URQUHART BRIDE OF MR. F. E. HASHAGEN

Of interest to a wide circle of friends in Wilmington and elsewhere will be the following account of the marriage of Mr. F. E. Hashagen, of this city, and Miss Susan Ella Urquhart, which is taken from Thursday's Savannah, (Ga.) News:

"Although very quiet, the marriage yesterday at noon of Miss Susan Alla Urquhart to Frederick Ernest Hashagen, Jr., was a lovely event, taking place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Urquhart, in West Thirty-sixth street. Yellow and green were the prevailing colors at the wedding, varied with a touch of pink in the music room where the wedding presents were shown. In the hall were palms and quantities of cosmos and the stair rail was twined with wild smilax. An arch of smilax and a semi-circle of palms in the drawing room formed the setting for the bridal party and on each end of the mantel, decorated with smilax, was a silver candlestick with shade of amber silk through which a softened light was shed in the room. The same charming lighting was effected in the dining room where the bride's table was in gold and green and in the music room pink roses were used with the green.

"The wedding music was rendered by Prof. Weigand, who played several violin numbers before the ceremony. The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played as the bride entered. She was unattended and Mr. Hashagen had for his best man Dr. Owen Moore, of Charlotte, N. C. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Paul W. Ellis, of Wesley Memorial church.

"The bride's table was covered with a cloth of cluny lace over yellow satin and had for its centerpiece a gold basket tied with a big bow of yellow tulle and filled with large yellow dahlias.

"The bride was married in her traveling suit of midnight blue serge and her blouse was of Georgette crepe over flesh-colored chiffon. Her hat of gold lace had a crown of old blue velvet and streamers of gold braid. Her flowers were purple orchids and lilies of the valley tied with purple tulle and she wore the bridegroom's gift, a pin of sapphires and pearls.

"The wedding gifts shown in the music room were numerous and handsome and several checks were received. The bride's parents gave a chest of flat silver, and there were numbers of silver plates and dishes, a silver pitcher, a tall hall lamp, trays and silver bowls, cut glass, odd pieces of silver, electrical articles of different kinds, a large cedar chest and many other useful and beautiful presents.

"Among the out-of-town guests at the ceremany were: F. E. Hashagen, the bridegroom's father, Miss Carrie Hashagen and George Hashagen, his sister and brother, all of Wilmington, N. C.; Owen Moore, of Charlotte, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. John Hooks, of Macon; Mrs. H. D. Strickland, of Columbia, S. C., and Mrs. W. C. Howard, of Macon.

"Mr .and Mrs. Hashagen left in the early afternoon for Asheville, N. C.; to spend about ten days in the mountains and after the first of November they will be at home in Wilmington."

BETTING AGAINST WILSON IS WITH CAMPAIGN MONEY

Declares Col. Walker Taylor, Who Says President Will be Re-elected.

It is all poppycock to talk about the betting odds being two to one against Wilson ,according to Col. Walker Taylor, who believes that the President will be re-elected and that what little money is being bet is campaign money wagered for campaign purposes. That is, it is to try to make people think Hughes is going to win.

According to other shrewd politicians, the betting odds do not indicate anything. They say that friends of theirs who visited New York within the past few days have tried to bet a thousand or two dollars at two to one, but could find no takers. The odds, which favor Hughes, are made by the moneyed interests, who are behind the Republican party. Even they generally refuse to bet any money except in $10,000 lots.

Colonel Taylor bases his opinion that Wilson will be re-elected because of the fact that business is going right ahead, while if there were any real doubt in the mind of business people about the election industrial plants would be marking time. The business men of the country have made up their minds that Wilson will be re-elected.

The presidential campaign is not worrying business men at all, the country is in the midst of a vigorous stock boom, based on the deeply-rooted belief that the war will continue indefinitely, and that an era of even greater prosperity lies right ahead of this country's great industries. With cotton hovering close to 20 cents and wheat and corn correspondingly high, the farmer as well as the business man, sees no reason why he should demand a change in the political administration of the country, which is largely responsible for the improved business conditions.

VANDALS MAKE WAY WITH FIXTURES AT TABERNACLE

Practically Everything Movable Carried Away From Srtucture.

When a delegation of citizens visited the Chapman-Alexander tabernacle yesterday they found that practically everything movable had been carried away by vandals who had looted the place after breaking down the doors. All of the electric fixtures that could be torn down had been removed the aggregate cost of which was more than a hundred dollars.

The high cost of copper wire at the present time makes it a valuable commodity and it is supposed that the vandals carried it off to be sold for junk. At any rate, it was gone, while other fixtures had been removed. The looting of the place occasioned some surprise as it had not been anticipated that anyone would enter the building after the doors and windows had been closed, even if their respect for the place, used as a place of worship, did not deter them.

DESERVES MORE CREDIT

Capt. W. P. Oldham Congratulates Mr. Reynolds on Letter.

"I think it deserves more credit than any publication I have seen for Wilson," says Capt. W. P. Oldham, of Wilmington, in a letter which he sent Mr. R. J. Reynolds, of Winston-Salem, after reading his communication in The Star, setting forth his reasons for supporting Wilson. Captain Oldham wrote Mr. Reynolds yesterday as follows:

"Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 20.

"Mr. R. J. Reynolds,

"My Dear Sir: I want to congratulate you on your liberal contribution to the Wilson and Marshall fund, also on your letter published The Star of even date, which I think deserves more credit than any publication I have seen for the election of Mr. Wilson. Hoping we may have success in the coming election, I am,

"Yours fraternally,

"W. P. OLDHAM."

DAY OF PRAYER IS OBSERVED

Wilmington Presbyterial Had Very Helpful Meeting at Warsaw—Inspiring Addresses Made.

The day of prayer observed by the Wilmington Presbyterial at Warsaw yesterday was one of the most inspiring and helpful meetings in the history of the organization, according to those attending from Wilmington.

The Presbyterian met in the Presbyterian church at that place with Mrs. Joseph A. Brown, of Chadbourn, president of the Presbyterial, presiding. Practically all the churches were represented and there was a splendid attendance. After a song, devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. George Mathis, of Clinton, pastor of the Warsaw church.

Mrs. W. L. Hill extended the welcome, giving expression to the delight the ladies of the Warsaw church felt in having the day of prayer held with them and giving each one present a cordial welcome. The response was made most gracefully by Mrs. Charles Rankin, of Wilmington.

A feature of the programme of the morning session that was greatly enjoyed was an interesting talk by Rev. R. L. Wharton ,of Cuba. Mr. Wharton spoke instructively and feelingly of the missionary work in Cuba, giving a short sketch of its progress in the last 18 years. Mrs. J. T. French, of Wilmington, spoke on "The Prayer Life," telling the different kinds of prayer and stressing the importance of continued prayer. Mrs. Charles Rankin read an excellently prepared paper on the "Prayer Life of the Apostle Paul."

One of the delightful features of the day was the bountiful and appetizing luncheon which had been prepared by the Warsaw ladies and which was served on the grounds at the church.

One of the enjoyable features of the afternoon session was a song service by the choir of the Warsaw church which was followed by an able and forceful address by Rev. Andrew J. Howell, of Wilmington, chairman of the Woman's Work of the Wilmington Presbytery. His subject was "Consecrated Womanhood."

Of particular interest to thise present was the message of Miss Eliza Murphy, of Wilmington, who brought a report of the work of Dr. Worth and his co-workers at Klang-yin, China. This was a personal message from Dr. Worth and contained much encouragement for those interested in the salvation of those on the other side of the earth.

A special prayer was offered by the Presbyterial for each of the workers at the mission station in China.

President Hollinsworth, of the James Sprunt Institute at Kenansville, brought a splendid report of the work that is being done there for young women. The cause of the orphanage was ably presented by Miss Hudson, who told of the fine work that is being done at Barium Springs. The afternoon session was closed with a consecration service, conducted by Mrs. W. P. M. Currie.

Besides those having places on the programme, those attending from Wilmington included: Mrs. A. O. Osborne, Mrs. A. D. McClure and Mrs. Lacy Hunt.

BUT ONE WEEK NOW REMAINS

Next Saturday, October 28, Will Be Last Registration Day—Voters Urged to Register at Once.

Chairman Thos. E. Cooper, of the County Democratic Committee, and his co-adjutors in the present campaign, are urging upon Democratic voters the necessity for registering for the general election, November 7. In this connection, Secretary C. C. Cashwell, of the committee, has seen broadcast over the county a letter in which he calls attention to the fact that New Hanover county has an excellent opportunity to win the silk flag offered to the county showing the greatest increase in votes cast over 1912, at the coming election.

Since the registration books will close at sundown next Saturday, October 28, all eligible Democratic voters in the county are urged to register at once.

All who voted in the general election of 1914 and whose names were on the registration books for the statewide primary, which was held last June, do not need to register for the election of November 7, but all others do. It is vitally important that every voter see at once that he is properly registered.

The registration books for the voting precincts of the county are at the home of the registrars of the several precincts and accessible to voters at all times that the registrar is at home. In addition, the registration books will be open today and next Saturday at the various polling places from 9 a. m. until sundown.

Secretary Cashwell's letter to the voters of the county reads as follows:

"The State Democratic Executive Committee is trying to stimulate greater interest in political affairs in North Carolina. They are offering a reward in the nature of a beautiful silk flag for the county doing the best work between now and November 7.

"We should be proud of winning the flag just for the sake of being the banner county, but there are other advantages—the precedent it would give us in the State convention—just think—the county that lead the State in contributions to the Wilson campaign fund in 1912 is again leading this year in the matter of general contributions, and then to be the banner county in the State when it comes to voting!

"Will we avail ourselves of this wonderful opportunity to gain a lasting place of honor in the State?

"Let every one do his little part in the next few days: Register, see that your neighbor is registered; vote, and see that your neighbor votes."

New Hanover can raise $5,000 for Wilson, provided we get the support of all true and loyal Democrats.

COTTON UNDERGOES RALLY

Advances, However, Are Not Maintained at the Close—Spot Middling Quoted at 18.40.

New York, Oct. 20.—Reports of killing temperatures in the western belt caused rallies in the cotton market today, January selling up to 18.54, or 28 points net higher. Advances were not maintained, however, with January closing at 18.35, while the general list closed barely steady, net unchanged to 12 points higher.

The market opened steady at a decline of one point on October, but generally 17 to 22 points net higher, but prices soon turned easier, with December selling off to 18.32 and March to 18.36 before the end of the morning, practically last night's closing figures. At th edeadline, however, there was a renewal of aggressive support from some of the recent prominent buyers, as well as an improved demand from Wall street. The official forecast for colder weather tonight also created some bullish interest and the market showed considerable firmness during the middle of th eday, with December selling up to 18.58 and March to 18.65, or 27 to 29 points net higher. Under increased offerings, however, the market became unsettled in the late trading with last prices showing reactions of from 18 or 19 points from the best.

WEEK'S REVIEW IN COTTON

Market Extremely Active With Sensational Price Movement—Highest Prices For Season Since 1873.

New York, Oct. 20.—It has been an extremely active week in the cotton market with trading at times showing great excitement and with the price-movement sensational. Seldom in the history of the trade has there been a greater over-night advance than that which occurred from the close of last Tuesday to the high point of Wednesday morning, and not since the autumn of 1872 have higher prices been witnessed at this season of the year. July sold at 19 cents while January touched 18.78 on the advance of Wednesday morning, or fully $10.00 a bale above the low level reached under the influence of the submarine scare at the beginning of the previous week. Since then there has been heavy general rallising and sharp reactions, but a decline to 18.22 for January on Thursday was followed by a partial recovery today on reports of killing temperatures in Oklahoma and parts of Texas.

The gulf storm which entered the belt during the middle of the week caused heavy rains, but it seemed generally believed that it would do little harm. Reactionary or bearish sentiment which became more general at the advance was encouraged by an idea that domestic spinners had now bought sufficient cotton to be rather more independent and there were also reports of increased Southern hedge selling above the 18-cent level. Private returns were rumored to show a ginning of about 7,720,000 bales up to October 18.

Foremost among the latter were Wabash issues, Rosk Island, Missouri Pacific, preferred, Chicago, Great Western, preferred, and Minneapolis and St. Louis.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

Selling-Out Movement Continues, Causing Drop in Prices.

New Orleans, Oct. 20.—The selling-out movement recently started on the long side of the cotton market continued today and dominated fluctuations during a good part of the session, robbing the cold wave of its full influence. Liquidation was in evidence throughout the session.

Around the opening prices were 15 to 22 points up on the frost and freezing weather in the western belt. Because of pressure from realizing longs, prices soon fell off until they were 1 to 5 points below the level of yesterday's close.

The market then steadied until fresh buying, stimulated by the forecast of continued cold weather in the western portions of the belt and much colder weather in the eastern and the improvement continued until the trading month swer e21 to 23 points over yesterday's final figures. Liquidation was resumed in the afternoon and the market fell off to about the lowest levels, but recovered somewhat toward the close, which was steady at a net gain for the day of 6 to 10 points. Closing bid:

October, 17.63; December, 17.80; January, 17.91; March, 18.15; May, 18.31; July, 18.40.

Spot cotton steady 6 points off. Sales on the spot 6.35 bales; to arrive 1,150; middling 17.75.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

Wheat Highest Since Civil War, Except During Leiter "Corner."

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Highest prices since the American Civil War, except during the Leiter "corner," resulted in the wheat market today from a series of wild rushes to buy and from a temporary scarcity of offers. On the bulge, however, profit-taking sales were heavy and there was an unsettled close. Final prices, with December at 1.69¼ to 1.69⅛ and may at 1.69⅛ to 1.69⅜, ranged from ⅝c decline to ⅛c advance as compared with yesterday's finish. Corn gained 1½ to 2⅝c, and oats ⅝ to ¾c. In provisions the outcome was unchanged to 40c higher.

Grain and provisions closed:

Wheat—December 1.69¼; May 1.68⅛.

Corn—December 54⅝; May 55⅞.

Oats—December 50¼; May 54⅛.

Pork—December 24.90; January 24.92.

Lard—December 14.77; January 14.27.

Ribs—October 14.10; January 13.37.

Cash grain:

Wheat—No. 2 red 1.69¼; No. 3 red 1.64¾ to 1.67¾; No. 2 hard 1.72½ to 1.72¾; No. 3 hard 1.60.

Corn—No. 2 yellow 97½ to 1.00; No. 4 yellow 96½ to 97; No. 4 white, nominal.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW

New York, Oct. 20.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

"Trade and industry never moved at a quicker pace than at present. Old record measures are constantly giving way to new ones, and while abnormally high commodity prices counsel caution lest a sudden veering of trade winds may come, demand is so insatiable that buying seemingly will go on while the European war lasts. As yet there is no sign of saturation point being reached as regards supplies of goods and while high prices are complained oif, there is no evidence aside from conservation in buying some textiles that have advanced largely, of the buying movement being checked.

"This week there was a veritable ground swell of new orders, accompanied by extraordinary quotations for leading commodities and clear evidences that the Nation's producing factors cannot meet demand, paucity of materials being accentuated by inadequate supplies of labor, as well as by country-wide shortages of railway cars.

"Weekly bank clearings, $6,665,210,000."

Says Every Executive, Both State and National, Can Do the Same Thing "If He Is Willing to Fight," Reveals Some Secrets.

Pittsburg, Oct. 20.—"Every executive, both state and national, is certain to feel the powerful influences of the liquor interests, but he can defeat their purposes if he is willing to fight," J. Frank Hanly told Ohio and Pennsylvania audiences today as the transcontinental "dry" special moved towards Pittsburg from Cleveland.

Mr. Hanly revealed some heretofore secret history of how the liquor interests tried to manipulate through him before and after his election as governor of Indiana. He beat them, he pointed out, and added that President Wilson could do the same thing in the nation and Charles E. Hughes could have beaten them in New York state while he was governor.

"They came to me before I was nominated for governor," he said, "and declared that they would make my nomination certain if I would pledge myself not to have saloon legislation enacted. I refused. On the eve of my nomination they came to me and promised to finance my campaign upon receipt of a similar pledge. Again I refused what they asked.

"In my inaugural address I asked for liquor legislation and the biggest brewer in the State came to my office and said that I could not pass the bills I wanted. I asked him why I could not, and then he said that if the bills were passed he would see that the political complexion of both houses of the legislature were changed in the next election.

"I saw the legislation passed. I fought them four years, all the time that I was in power."

Ira Landrith called attention to the "similarity" of the Republican and Democratic platforms and candidates.

"The two platforms can be sung in chorus, and any good barber can make the two candidates look like Siamese twins in ten minutes," he declared.

The candidates will spend Sunday in Buffalo.

to crush the ambition of England for world power.

DURATION OF WAR STILL A MATTER OF CONJECTURE

Boston, Oct. 20.—The United States minister to France, William G. Sharp, on the eve of returning to his post at Paris, addressed the Boston City Club today. After reciting events of the war during his two years at the French capital the ambassador said that the duration of the conflict was still a matter of conjecture.

What the trade relations of the United States would be after the war is over, he said, was "anybody's guess."

"The belligerent countries are losing their best men," he said ,"and physical rehabilitation will, of course, be necessary after the war. If we do have to engage in a trade conflict, I don't think that we can prepare for it but will have to meet emergencies as they come."

The ambassador said that the people of Paris "have faith that the Germans will never again, during the present war, get near enough to injure them."

DISCUSS PRELIMINARY PLANS FOR CONFEDERATE REUNION

Gathering in Washington Probably to be Held in May or June.

Washington, Oct. 20.—Preliminary plans for the 1917 reunion of the United Confederate Veterans—their first gathering in Washington—were discussed here today at a meeting of the finance committee of the general reunion committee. The exact date for the gathering has not been determined, but members of the committee said the reunion probably would be held in May or June, the plans being to have the entertainment of the veterans spread over a week, with excursions to Gettysburg and other nearby battlefields.

H. F. Cary, general passenger agent of the Southern Railway and chairman of the reunion finance committee, stated today that reports from all parts of the South indicated that enormous crowds would come here for the meeting and predicted that the attendance would be greater than that of any other meeting ever held in Washington.

Plans were laid today for raising an entertainment fund of $40,000 to be expended during the reunion.

TEN AMERICAN AVIATORS IN FRENCH UNIFORMS CHEERED

Luncheon Given in Honor of Dr. Prince by Distinguished Men.

Paris, Oct. 20.—Ten American aviators in the uniform of the French army were cheered by a great assemblage of men distinguished in the official and intellectual life of France at a luncheon given today in honor of Dr. Morton Prince, of Boston, who presented to President Poincare last week the "address to the people of the Allied Nations," signed by 500 Americans.

The speakers made sympathetic reference to the death, while fighting for France, of Norman Prince, a nephew of Dr. Prince. They declared that the young Americans who had given their lives for France would never be forgotten nor would the French forget the outpouring of services and money for works of mercy in France, and for the supply of munitions and the wholehearted good will of millions of Americans.

Dr. Prince in responding explained the difference between the neutrality of the American government and the ardent sympathies of a majority of the American people.

FEARS THE BREMEN AND ALL HER CREW HAVE BEEN LOST

Paul G. L. Hilken Admits That the Vessel is a Month Overdue.

Baltimore, Oct. 20.—Paul G. L. Hilken, American manager of the company owning the German merchant submarines, today admitted that the Bremen was a month overdue, that he feared an accident had happened to her machinery and that she had been lost with all her crew.

Mr. Hilken said he did not believe the Bremen had been captured. He added that he knew Germany had lost only 19 submarines from all causes since the war began.

The Bremen was said to have been bringing a larger cargo of dyestuffs than that carried on the Deutschland. Mr. Hilken said he believed the Bremen also was bringing a serum for infantile paralysis.

New Orleans, Oct. 20.—Judge Parker, in th ecivil district court here today, ordered erasure of the abbreviation (col.) from the city board of health records of the deaths of certain ancestors of Frank Joubert, secretary and general manager of the Municipal Public Belt railroad. WORK FOR PREVENTION OF INFANT MORTALITY

Methods of Instruction Described by Dr. Dorothy Mendenhall

Tells How Wisconsin University Extension Department Carries on Its Work of Instruction For Mothers.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 20.—The work of the University Extension Departments in educating the mothers along the lines of prenatal cafer, was described by Dr. Dorothy Reed Mendenhall of the University of Wisconsin, at the seventh annual meeting of the American Association for Study and Prevention of Infant Mortality today. She declared that the extension movement in the middle and far west reaches many places where other educational opportunities are entirely wanting, especially in the rural and mining communities. "In Wisconsin," she continued, 'during the past four years, the teaching along prenatal and natal lines has developed in two days. A correspondence course on The Care of the Expectant Mother' has been offered, and has been well received outside the state as well as in Wisconsin itself. This course aims to give the mother the necessary knowledge, presented in a simple, usable way, to enable her to keep herself in good physical condition. The question of confinement is reviewed, the selection of the physician and nurse discussed, as well as the unnecessary danger of childbed fever and the needed rest in the lying-in period Questions to be answered accompany each assignment and the pupil is encouraged to present her personal problems.

"Also during the last three years, at the community institutes held in different villages and small towns in the State under the auspices of the Agricultural and University Extensions, talks have been given on the care of the mother before and after confinement and hygiene of the young child. An informal consultation hour is held after the lecture, for those who do not care to present their problems in the open discussion. These talks are given usually to women, but not infrequently at evening meetings with a mixed audience, the question of the care of the child-bearing woman as a community problem, and its relation to the health of the community are discussed and arouse considerable interest.

"The extension movement has been called by Miss Addams the 'traveling settlement' and we believe it to be a real factor in arousing public attention to health problems, and in educating isolated communities along these lines. There will have to be a general awakening to the importance of prenatal care, the need of good obstetrical attendance and the value of rest in the lying-in period, if our next generation is to be sturdy and if the dangers now accompanying pregnancy and confinement are to be minimized in communities where hospitals, dispensaries, nurses, and even domestic service are unknown quantities."

FARMERS FAVOR ANTHONY EQUAL SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT

The National Congress Recommends Changes in the Smith-Lever Law.

Indianapolis, Oct. 20.—Resolutions favoring the Susan B. Anthony equal suffrage amendment to the Federal constitution and recommending changes in the Smith-Lever law so that funds would be distributed according to acreage under tillage and not according to population, were adopted at the closing session of the National Farmers' Congress here today. It was said the delegation favored Houston, Texas, as the next convention city, and that the executive committee probably would accept that choice.

The congress today also went on record as favoring the withdrawals of the Shields-Myers and Phelan water power bills pending in the Senate; administration of the Farm Loan Board law for the benefit of th efarmers; no increase in freight rates as compensation for increased wages, and an investigation of the manner in which the fight against the foot and mouth disease was conducted in 1914 and 1915.

John Skelton Williams, United States comptroller of the currency, spoke today on "Federal Reserve Banks and the Farmers."

Virtually all the old officers, including President H. E. Stockbridge, of Atlanta, and Secretary J. F. Grimm, of Tiptonville, Tenn., were re-elected.

GEN CARLOS WITH FORCE OF 2,000 IN FIELD AGAINST VILLA

Chihuahua City, Oct. 20 (via El Paso Junction, Oct. 20)—General Carlos Ozuna left her etoday with a column of 2,000 cavalry, 12 machine guns and a sanitary corps, all well supplied, to take the field against Villa.

Villa is reported to be in San Andres today while his bands are visiting the neighboring ranches to obtain loot and impress the ranchers in the Villa command.

Ozuna's advance guard had its first encounter late today near Santa Ysabel with Villa's band, with a victory for the government troops, according to brief advices received here by General Trevino. An unverified report places among the bandits killed Martin Lopez, brother of Pablo Lopez, author of the Santa Ysabel massacre, who was executed in Chihuahua City some four months ago.

MEXICAN SAYS VILLA STILL HOSTILE TOWARDS AMERICANS

El Paso, Texas, Oct. 20.—So far from being friendly towards Americans, declared a Mexican who had been Villa's prisoner at Cusihuirichic and who reached here today, Villa has proclaimed his intention of killing any one working for or aiding any American. He described Villa a sliming up some of his soldiers who wore American shoes and telling them they had better go shod with cow hide sandals than to make this concession to American superiority.

Passengers from Mexico City arriving at Juarez late last night said their train was held up by bandits below Jiminez, and the passengers robbed, but otherwise unharmed.

SAYS PICKPOCKETS HAVE TRUST.

Privileges to Work Street Cars Sold, an Attorney Asserts.

(New York Letter to Pittsburg Post).

Bury your roll when you come to town. If you don't the "dips" will get it.

"There's a powerful pickpocket trust now in operation in New York. It is backed by men of influence, and its members rarely fall into the hands of the police."

This statement was made by James E. Smith, district attorney. While he refused to state that certain of the police were working in conjunction with the "trust" he left the inference that a coterie of men of influence who are behind the "trust" were friendly to many police officers.

"The pickpocket industry," the district attorney continued, has grown to such an extent that 'pickpocket privileges' can be bought from duly authorized agents as freely as subway tickets. My information is that the organization is not merely a local institution, but has a powerful branch in Chicago and extends into other municipalities. The surface cars are the principal source of revenue for the thieves who steal from your pocket. Men upon whom I rely tell me a scale of prices at which privileges can be bought has been fixed, also that 'rules for operation' accompany the privilege."

TEACH SYRIANS HOW TO PLAY

Summer School Conducted By Atlanta Presbyterian Churches.

(Atlanta Journal.)

On Butler street, between 8:30 and 10:30 o'clock every morning except Saturday, about fifty Syrian kiddies of Atlanta—little olive skinned children, with big, wandering eyes, dark hair and long eyelashes—are taught verses of the Bible, sewing, embroidery and many different games.

This little summer school is conducted by the Presbyterian churches of Atlanta. There are five big rooms at the mission and a capable corps of teachers has charge of the work.

The tuition at this school is entirely free. The workers of the mission will understand the value of teaching the Syrian tots how to play and the necessity of keeping them off the streets during the summer months and for this reason the summer school has been put in operation. Children from 2 to 14 years old are admitted.

Seldom are the Syrian children tardy. Most of them are standing outside the mission when the teachers arrive in the morning and they're eager to get upstairs and begin their daily work. There is a kindergarten for the little ones. The older boys are taught how to make baskets of hammocks and the girls are taught sewing and embroidery.

DUTCH SHIP BOUND FROM BORNEO TO MANILA HELD UP

All Her Mail Taken Off by British Vessel, Dispatches Say.

Washington, Oct. 20.—The Dutch steamer Arakan bound from a Dutch port in Borneo to Manila, was held up on the high seas August 30 by a British vessel and all her mail was taken off ,according to advices reaching Washington today. No official explanation has reached the State Department and an inquiry may be made as to why a neutral vessel bound from one neutral port to another and far removed from the war zone, was submitted to such treatment.

Great Britain some time ago extended her censorship to vessels plying in the far east, but so far as is known never before has siezed mail outside British waters or on such a shore local voyage.
